Striking Farmers Picket All Roads Leading To Omaha

EFFORTS TO SETTLE

Thirteen Pickets Arrested Near Des Moines When Convoys Escort Trucks

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 30.—(UP)— Moving stubbornly ahead with their plan despite opposition of law enforcement officers of two states, striking farmers today picketed every road leading to the Omaha market.

Advancing under cover of darkness, picket groups, in the hours before dawn, established their camps on Nebraska highways which until today had been held open to trucks.

Within a few hours the new offensive was reflected on the Omaha livestock market, where only 300 sheep and 1,000 cattle were received by truck.

There was no violence, officers apparently hesitating to move against the men. Sheriff Charles B. McDonald of Omaha asserted the situation on the Nebraska side was beyond his control.

On the Iowa side, Sheriff Percy Lainson, whose deputies clashed violently with pickets a few days ago, also left the strikers alone.

Sheriff Lainson, however, planned today to present evidence regarding alleged illegal picketing to a Council Bluffs grand jury.

At other Iowa points arrests and violence marked the progress of the strike activity. Eleven deputies were beaten with iron pipes and clubs in a riot near Sioux City, as they sought to convoy six truck-loads of hogs through the lines.

Des Moines officers, fighting to keep highways leading to Iowa's capital city clear, arrested thirteen men as armed convoys escorted trucks past the pickets.

Efforts to settle strike differences, were continuing, but any hope of a general agreement appeared dim.

An attempt was to be made today to win approval of the Farmers' Holiday Association for the new agreement between the Nebraska-Iowa Cooperative Milk association and Omaha and Council Bluffs creameries under which $1.80 per hundredweight would be paid for milk.

It was expected approval would not be forthcoming, since only one large dairy has formally signed the agreement, the others accepting it tentatively, but refusing to sign while picketing continues.

MRS. FERGUSON IN LEAD ONCE AGAIN

DALLAS, Aug. 30.—Mrs. Mirlam
A. Ferguson had a lead of 1297 votes over Governor Ross Sterling, Houston, at 11 a. m. today, returns to the Texas election bureau revealed.

The returns, complete from 224 counties of the 254 in the state, gave Mrs. Ferguson 474,530 votes as compared to 473,233 for Governor Sterling. The total vote was 947,763.

PRORATA ORANGE SHIPMENT PLAN IS GIVEN APPROVAL

GERMAN REICH OPENED TODAY BY 'RED CLARA'

Powers Almost of Dictator Granted Chancellor by von Hindenburg

BERLIN, Aug. 30.—(UP)—President Paul von Hindenburg today granted his chancellor, Franz Von Papen, powers almost of a dictator, in authorizing him to disband the reichstag at his discretion.

The aged "feldmarschal" told Von Papen, and two ministers in conference with him, that he is at liberty to undertake this dilatorial step if the reichstag tries to veto misconfidence in the Von Papen regime and its reconstruction program.

Von Papen was armed with this fresh power as the reichstag gathered tensely. Crowds surged in the streets nearby. Many brown shirts and Nazi followers of Adolf Hitler were present.

Von Papen, War Minister Kurt Von Schleicher and Baron Wilhelm Von Gayl, minister of the interior, conferred with the president at Neudeck. The official announcement from that meeting was that Von Hindenburg is in full accord with the cabinet's policies.

Hitler, anticipating a crisis in the government, was in Berlin.
He was deeply chagrined over a conference yesterday with Von Papen and Von Schleicher, in which he was told bluntly that he could not have the chancellorship.

Von Papen told the Fascist chieftain that he could become vice chancellor, that his party could have dictatorial control over Prussia, and that several minor posts in the cabinet could be given to national socialists. But Hitler, adamant as he has been throughout, spurned this offer, declaring he would take all or nothing.

Seventy-five year old "Red Clara" Zetkin, veteran communist, was carried to the reichstag rostrum today and opened the new session of parliament after Chancellor Franz Von Papen had received dictatorial powers from President Von Hindenburg to dissolve the reichstag at his discretion.

"I herewith open the reichstag hoping that I live to open the first assembly of Soviet Germany," Clara declared as she leaned heavily on a cane, and supported on the rostrum by a fellow Communist. She paused often to regan her breath.

Police outside the parliament building clubbed Communists and Nazi brown shirts to disperse a fighting mob of 2000 persons.
There were numerous arrests. In-civilians clothes and Nazis in brown shirt uniforms maintained a restrained and glaring silence as Clara denounced the Von Pa-

FIFTH VICTIM OF CAVEIN IS FOUND

LIVERMORE, Calif., Aug. 30.—
(UP)—The mangled, mudcaked body of Eddie Cline, fifth victim of a cave-in in the Vallee-Mocho tunnel of the Hetch Hetchy project, was recovered by rescue workers today.

Recovery of the last victim of the latest disaster in San Francisco's long and costly attempt to construct a water supply project was made after rescue crews had worked 30 hours in the hot, muddy shaft, hundreds of feet below the crest of the coast range mountains. Bodies of the four other victims were recovered yesterday.

Debris of the cavern in the world's longest tunnel—28 1/2 miles long—was expected to be removed today in order that investigators might conclude their examination of the tunnel to determine the extent of damage.

county and city.

A special United Press leased wire will bring returns to The Register from all sections of the state.

tonight due to the large ballot.

SENATOR DAVIS DENIES GUILT BEFORE COURT

Pleads Not Guilty to Indictments to Operation of Lottery

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—(UP)—
U. S. Senator James J. Davis, prominent in the Moose Order and Theodore G. Miller, head of that organization's propaganda department, pleaded not guilty today to two indictments, charging them with conspiracy to operate a lottery and operation of a lottery.

The pleas were made before federal Judge Robert P. Patterson.
Previously, Bernard G. McGuire of New York, Aurora, Ill., and Philadelphia, allegedly the director of lotteries promoted for the Eagles, Moose, K. of C. and Shriner's fraternal bodies, and his assistant, Raymond Walsh of New York, pleaded not guilty to similar indictments.

The men had entered similar pleas last week when arraigned on two other indictments charging lottery operation. Ball of $2500, posted by McGuire last week, was
ments, as was the $1000 bail posted by Walsh.

At the request of District Attorney George Z. Medallie, trial was set for Sept. 19. Davis' attorney, Charles H. Tuttle, former United States district attorney, told the court that the date was satisfactory to his client but indicated an earlier trial might be requested later.

Davis and Miller together with four men and the Western Union Telegraph company were indicted two weeks ago in connection with the operation of lotteries in conjunction with fraternal organizations.

The indictments were returned as the result of nearly five months investigation.

Conference Is Held In Santa Ana

Co-operation of All State Growers Urged—University Study Asked

WITH MORE THAN 90 per cent of the Southern California citrus crop represented at a meeting held yesterday in the offices of the Orange County Farm Bureau, a revised prorate plan of orange shipment was developed and approved for solution of the industry's immediate difficulty.

The plan is expected to be officially adopted at once by boards of directors of the participating marketing organizations.

Cooperation of the University of California in preparing a permanent program for the California citrus marketing situation will be sought under a resolution adopted at yesterday's meeting.

The revised Valencia surplus control plan was given the endorsement of all marketing and producing organizations, including the M. O. D., represented at the conference. This revised plan is to be recommended to all California citrus marketing organizations as an emergency measure for the remainder of the shipping season.

Under the revised plan, sales departments of the various marketing organizations will determine consumption of Valencias and a growers' committee will establish rules and regulations governing shipments and the prorate of each organization.

The conference yesterday was presided over by J. W. Crill, president of the Orange County Farm Bureau, following a similar meeting held last Thursday and a series of growers' conferences held the next day.

Realizing that surpluses will have to be considered in the future, delegates at the conference yesterday went on record asking all marketing organizations to send representatives to a meeting of a naval orange committee to be held at the call of Crill. This meeting

FLORIDA STORM IS HEADING FOR GULF

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 30.—(UP)— Hurricane warnings and rumors of an impending disaster terrified East Florida during the night, but indications today were that the storm was "lost in the Everglades" or headed toward Ft. Meyer on the gulf.

The tropical gale blew in from the Bahamas and shrieked over Homestead, Fla., 40 miles south of here at midnight, and according to Weather Observer R. W. Gray, was headed northwest into the Everglades.

Wind struck this city in late afternoon, gradually increased in velocity while the barometer fell, was showering through the darkened streets and lashing coast waters into a fury at a 50 mile velocity a few hours later, but died down this morning.

HEAVY VOTE IS EXPECTED OVER ENTIRE STATE

Faction Strife Within Democratic Party to Draw Host to Polls

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—(UP)— Factional strife within the Democratic party and a wet-dry fight in Republican ranks were expected to draw out a record vote today as California voters went to the polls to nominate candidates for United States senator, congressman, state legislature and the appellate bench.

The old political rivalry of William Gibbs McAdoo, one time secretary of the treasury, and former Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York, was a major issue in the Democratic senatorial race. Mc-Adoo, himself a candidate, opposed Justus S. Wardell, San Francisco, recognized until the recent Democratic national convention, as nominal head of the party in California.

Before McAdoo actively entered the picture Wardell, who supported Smith in 1928, was an ardent campaigner for Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Democratic presidential nominee, and he headed the ticket which sought to win California's convention votes for the New Yorker.

McAdoo, in contrast, carried Speaker John N. Garner's colors in the state presidential preference primary and helped win the Texan an unlooked for victory. Shortly after this, and just prior to the national convention, McAdoo announced his own candidacy and armed with California's 44 votes for Garner, he went to the convention.

His history making coup in which Garner withdrew and the California and Texas delegations cast their votes for Roosevelt, precipitated the split with Wardell. The former Smith supporter issued a statement saying he "questioned McAdoo's party loy-

STOCK MARKET PRICES UP AS RAILS ADVANCE

Railroad Shares in Spectacular Burst at Close Carry Issues Up

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—(UP)—
Railroad shares in a spectacular burst of activity turned the stock market definitely higher near the close today after early irregularity featured by group movements and mixed trend among recent leaders. Selling in steel common in the last few minutes of trading, however, brought a slightly mixed close.

The day witnessed a series of sharp advances in various sections of the list. Coppers led at the start, rising to new highs for the year on improved demand and higher prices for the metal here and abroad. Then the automobile and their accessory shares—the motor equipments and rubbers—swung into line. Oils had a period of activity and strength. Late in the day tobacco joined the upturn and finally the rails resumed their advance after a few days of rest.

The upswing in the carriers was sensational for a time. Delaware, Lackawanna and Western crossed 38 into new high ground for the year for a gain of more than six points. Lehigh Valley, another of the so-called anthracite group, jumped three points and Delaware and Hudson rose nearly four points. Others of the group were up fractions to two points. New York Central was an active feature, equaling its high for the move.

Goodyear led the rubbers, rising to a new high for the year at 29 1/2, up 6 1/2 points, while the premier made a new 1932 top at 69 1/2, up 13 1/4. U. S. Rubber

SENATE COMMITTEE ON TOUR OF STATE

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 30.—(UP)—
A 5-day tour of California to members of the United States sen-

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—(UP)— Utility and industrial corporation earnings for the first six months of 1932 were $601,779

ality" and accused him of switching from Garner to Roosevelt "when it became politically expedient." He charged McAdoo with exhibiting similar tactics in "for-making Smith" in the stirring election of 1928 and of wreaking political vengeance upon the ex-governor at the recent convention because of Smith's victory, minus McAdoo's help, in the 1928 convention.

McAdoo's strategy, political observers pointed out, in effect "stole the show" that Wardell had carefully builded on the candidacy of Roosevelt before McAdoo lined up behind Roosevelt.

Another point at issue between the two is their attitude on prohibition. Wardell is an avowed wet. McAdoo, personally dry, recently announced he favored re-submission and this further drew Wardell ire.

Political observers generally agreed that if McAdoo were winner today Wardell automatically would be ousted as leader of the state party.

Other candidates in the Democratic senatorial race were the Rev. Robert (Fighting Bob) Shuler, Methodist preacher of Los Angeles and ardent dry; Maurice J. McCarthy, Hollywood; Parson M. Abbott, Los Angeles, and Annie Bille Hale, Altadena.

In the five cornered Republican senatorial race, Senator Samuel Shortridge, incumbent, was supported by State Senator Tallant Tubbs, an avowed wet; Congressman Joe Crall, Los Angeles dry; the Rev. Shuler who also is running on the prohibition ticket, and Leo V. Youngworth, Culver City lawyer and farmer.

In the opinion of political observers, Shortridge faced dangerous rivals in Tubbs and Crall, both of whom conducted extensive campaigns and won strong following. It was believed, however, that the Tubbs-Crall fight might split the vote sufficiently to win Shortridge a renomination.

Tubbs' supporters claimed his long record advocating repeal would put him over, particularly in the San Francisco bay area, Crall's adherents. In contrast, looked to dry Southern California and Crall's frequent dry pronouncements, to win him a majority. Senator Shortridge, although he declared for re-submission, has disregarded the issue in favor of a program of economy and party loyalty.

The voters were to nominate congressmen from 26 districts instead of 11 as formerly. California won nine new districts, most of them in Southern California, through the federal reapportionment. Most of these campaigns were waged with unusual fervor, with unemployment, the soldiers' bonus and prohibition playing an important part.

Recovers from Accident; Leg Broken

Jack Shell, son of Mrs. Joe Shell of Orange, who nearly lost his life in an automobile accident about two months ago, was the victim of a peculiar accident Sunday when he again met misfortune through a motor car.

Shell was standing in the driveway of a friend on the Newport road when he was struck by a car backing out and his leg was broken. The young man had barely recovered from a fractured skull and other injuries received in the previous accident which occurred when the car in which he was driving struck a telephone pole on the Newport highway. Shell was employed at the California market here for some time.

will be called for the purpose of further studying the navel orange marketing situation in an effort to work out a plan for regulating shipments.

In an effort to prepare a permanent marketing plan that will overcome the surplus situation and to stabilize prices it was decided to ask the cooperation of the university as an unbiased and impartial agency. The university will be asked to make a careful and complete study of the entire California citrus marketing situation and recommend a permanent program.

Marketing organizations represented at the conference yesterday were: American Fruit Growers; C. C. Chapman interests, Fullerton; Mutual Orange Distributors, Redlands; California Fruit Growers' Exchange; Gold Buckle Citrus association, East Highland; Cleg-horn and Lenhart, Highland, and Gold Banner Citrus association, Redlands.

The purpose of the prorata plan is to aid growers to obtain at the cost of production on their crops.

RECORD VOTE IS CAST HERE THIS MORNING

voters less than one-third had gone to the polls.

A light vote was being cast in many of the voting precincts outside Santa Ana. At the Newport Beach city hall 85 citizens had cast their ballots, with 427 registered.

A check of five Anaheim polling places revealed that at No. 8, 35 had voted out of 211 registered; No. 18, 43 votes cast out of 250 registered; No. 19, 22 out of 172; No. 23, 53 out of 292 and No. 15, 18 out of 187 registered.

At the Seal Beach city hall precinct, 48 citizens had voted, with 366 on the lists.

The precinct at the Placentia hall had 34 votes at noon today, with 203 registered.

The Fullerton vote was light this morning but was expected to pick up this afternoon. This situation was true of many districts and election officials expected to do a "rushing business" late today, with the peak hours between 5 and 7 o'clock.

Figures from eight Huntington Beach precincts follow: No. 8, 35 votes cast out of 325 registered; city yard, 22 out of 275; grammar school, 39 out of 300; city hall, 36 out of 240; Woman's club, 31 out of 250; Huntington inn, 53 out of 225; Buick garage, 46 out of 275; Bennett's store, 47 out of 250.

The early vote at Buena Park was quite light, only 222 out of a registration of 1219 being cast at noon. By precincts: No. 1, 177 registered; 30 cast; No. 2, 215 registered; 38 cast; No. 3, 218 registered; 59 cast; No. 4, 277 registered; 63 cast; No. 5, 232 registered; 22 cast.

FAMOUS DRIVER AND CAR HERE TOMORROW
Cliff Bergere, nationally known auto race driver, who incidentally was married in Santa Ana some several years ago is coming back tomorrow for the first time.

He will be the driver of the Studebaker President roadster, which averaged 102.66 miles per hour in the recent Indianapolis races, which is advertised to appear on the street here between 11 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. tomorrow.

Cliff will drive the car blindfolded, the trick being one of his own which he has "cashed in on" throughout the country. The car is one of five in the race which made remarkable time, bettering all previous times on the speedway up to this year.

Musically Inclined Burglar Reported
Some musically inclined burglar took advantage of the fact that Gladys A. Smith, of 112 West Third street was away from home and stole a mandolin and a ukulele from her apartment, yesterday, according to a police report.

The mandolin was worth $25 and the "Uke" $23.50, she reported. Entrance to the place was made after a screen over a rear window had been removed.

PEEVED AT CRASH, DRIVER BACKS OFF, RAMS AGAIN

Thomas A. Crane, 59, rancher of 1905 Oak street, just hates for another car to get in his way when he's driving.

He proved it yesterday when the truck he was operating collided with a car driven by C. M. Becker, Santa Ana, at First and Bush streets.

It made him so mad, according to police report, that he backed up and tried another "whack" on the Becker car, the second time pushing it 100 feet down the street.

Police arrested Crane and had him examined for driving while drunk, figuring that it would take a drunken man to stage the trick, but Crane was found sober by the doctor called in.

Then Becker signed a complaint against Crane charging assault and Crane was taken before Judge J. G. Mitchell, and pleaded not guilty. His trial was set for September 1, at 10 a. m. and bail of $200 was demanded, which he did not make. He was lodged in the county jail.

STAFFS OF COMMUNITY CHEST AGENCIES TO BE USED DURING CAMPAIGN; NAME DIRECTOR

The Community Chest campaign this fall for funds with which to carry on welfare and relief work of the coming year, will enlist the working assistance of officers and staffs of all member agencies and will draw upon the mechanical facilities of these organizations in order that every possible economy may be made in the drive, it was agreed at a meeting of the agency heads yesterday.

W. J. Tuway, president of the Community Chest, in addressing the meeting of agency executives and officers, brought out that the campaign this year will depend almost entirely upon volunteer service. He declared that chest directors are seeking to eliminate every possible element of cost in order that all subscriptions may be made to produce the maximum of relief and welfare service for those in need and in distress.

United Program
The meeting developed the fact that this year social service and welfare agencies will present a united program designed to meet all major requirements of the community in the relief, behavior and social service fields as they have developed because of emergency employment and business conditions.

"The studies of every agency and of such groups as the budget committee make it evident that every possible dollar will be required if we are to provide for the minimum needs of relief needs of the community," said Tuway. "This means that the chest campaign must bring subscriptions from a much larger number of persons than in the past and that the amounts to be pledged will have to be a great deal larger than in the past."

J. B. Abell, who has been commissioned by the board of directors to direct the coming campaign, told the meeting yesterday of the plan of appeal which has been presented to the chest. Under the arrangement the appeal will be "tagged" so that portions of it will have been completed prior to the opening of the intensive drive on October 17.

More Thorough Canvass
The director stated that this method of operation makes it possible to cover the community more thoroughly and at less expense than where an effort is made to handle all work within a week or 10 days. Under the plan all volunteers will be given somewhat smaller districts to cover but will be asked to make a most thorough job of it.

"The campaign this year must be accepted as a community responsibility in which everyone should share," said Abell. "This means that a very great many men and women who have given but little time in the past will be asked to accept a larger measure of responsibility in the coming appeal."

The director will be here constantly until the completion of the appeal. He brings more than 10 years of experience to the work, and comes here from chest, employment and other civic undertakings in San Diego.

common and preferred also were strong as were Goodrich and Pisk issues.

In the coppers, new 1932 highs were made by Anaconda, American Smelting, Kennecott, Noranda Mines, and Calumet & Hecla. St. Joseph Lead reached a new top in its division.

Chrysler led the motors and made a new top for the year at 17-1/4, up 1-1/4 points. Other motors followed for a time, but lost part or all of their gains before the close. Nash gained nearly a point. Electric Auto-Lite, Timken, Boller, Hering, Borg Warner and Bendix shared in the rise in the motor equipments. American Tobacco B featured the tobaccos.

U. S. Industrial Alcohol met fair demand in its division and strength was displayed in their respective groups by American Woolen, National Cash Register A. Hahn department stores and Loew's Incorporated.

Volume was light when the market was reacting. It picked up somewhat on the rally in rails and was rather heavy near the close when considerable profit-taking came into Steel common.

Selling in Steel followed publication of the Dow-Jones estimate of steel production rate. The rate for the week ended Monday was placed at a little under 13 per cent of capacity, against a figure slightly above 12-1/2 per cent in the previous week and a shade under 14-1/2 per cent two weeks ago.

Commodity markets were meeting profit-taking most of the day, although in several the rising tendency of recent days continued. New highs for the year were made by Rubber and Cocoa futures and wide gains were made by wool top futures. Silver and silk also advanced. Wheat, however, sold off 1 to 1-1/4 cents a bushel and grains dipped smaller amounts. Cotton dropped more than $2 a bale in the early trading, rallied partially in heavy trading, and then slipped back again. Bonds were irregular with United States government issues higher.

According to preliminary calculation, the Dow-Jones Co. industrial average stood at 74.31, off 0.31, railroad 35.84, up 0.16, and utility 33.65, off 0.76.

Sales were $300,000 shares, against $300,000 shares yesterday. Aggregate market value of 10 leading stocks was $6,387,565,100, against $6,463,049,526 yesterday, a decline of $75,484,426.

pen government and "Fascist murderers."

The government conspicuously snubbed the Reichstag opening. While Chancellor Von Papen, minister of defense, General Kurt Von Schleicher, and Minister of Interior Gron Von Gayl were with President Von Hindenburg at Neudeck, no member of the government or representative of any ministry appeared at the Reichstag.

Police restored order outside parliament after half an hour's tumult.

Herman Goering, prominent Nazi, was elected speaker of the new Reichstag. He received 367 of 588 votes.

Former Speaker Dr. Paul Loeb received 135 votes. Communist Ernst Torgler, who supported Clara Zetkin on the rostrum, 80 votes, and Nazi Franz Stoeck, one vote.

Goering assumed the chair dressed in full Hitlerite regalia.

On its first vote, the new Reichstag approved the release of two deputies in jail, one Nazi and one Communist.

The Von Papen government appeared to control only the votes of the 37 Hugenberg Nationalists, who remained seated when the first vote was taken.

Minor disorders occurred in the vicinity of the Reichstag until late in the afternoon. News reel trucks rushed back and forth, filming the skirmishes between demonstrators and police.

B. Pilch, deputy collector of the Internal Revenue service, today.

Those who are required to pay the excise taxes have a whole month to file their returns after the ending of the current month. Tomorrow is the last day for filing returns on July business.

More than 35,000 persons visited the Henry E. Huntington Library and Art Gallery during July and August, establishing a new record for the San Marino institution. Never before have so many world travelers visited the exhibitions in a two-month period. Cooperation of the Hostesses of the Tenth Olympic games, Chambers of Commerce and convention officials, as well as private hosts, made it possible to accommodate all tourists, despite the unprecedented number of admission requests.

As usual, the doors of the exhibitions will be closed for the month of September. When they are reopened, October 1, a special exhibition of rare books and manuscripts illustrating the development of Tudor Drama will be on display. This exhibit has been prepared at the request of the Association of Colleges and Universities of the Pacific Southwest for students of English literature and history, and, like the other special exhibits for the library, will be open to all visitors.

concerning the price advances on Sept. 1st

We have on our desk today notices from manufacturers of advances in prices on certain lines of furniture to take effect Thursday the 1st. Perfectly reasonable; prices have been too low for the good of business. And showing that business is on the upgrade.

We can't say positively that you'll never have opportunities like today's again! But such a statement is credible; at least within your time and ours!

We purchased a lot of furniture at the lowest point of the market. As long as these purchases last, they will be sold to you at TODAY'S valuation, regardless of market advances.

Also, our 34th Birthday Sale ends tomorrow, Wednesday. Prices are reduced BELOW today's valuations.

So, we'll just ask you to consider these things and decide for yourself whether or not it is good business for you to buy now!—on the last day of our sale!

OPPOSITION TO SHIFT IN TAX IS ORGANIZED

Organizing strenuous local opposition to the proposed state constitutional amendment calling for individual net income and selected sales taxes to finance school costs. Gil A. Cowan, director of research of the California Taxation Improvement association visited here today. "Secretary Marvin L. Arnold, 724 Subway Terminal building, Los Angeles, will arrange for speaking dates before local groups at a later date, if requested," he said. He listed the following groups already in opposition to the proposed school tax shift: Ventura County Farm Bureau; California Classroom Teachers; San Francisco Real Estate Board, property owners districts; California Affiliated Exchange clubs, merchants, manufacturers, and other professional groups.

Individuals such as State Director of Finance Rolland A. Vandegrift, State Printer Harry Hammond, State Senators Arthur H. Breed, of Oakland and Henry Carter of Los Angeles; former Senators Frank C. Weller of Los Angeles and Tom West of Alameda; former Lieutenant Governor H. L. Carnahan, Harry H. Baskerville, president of the Los Angeles board of education, and hundreds of others, are urging a vote of NO on No. 9, Cowan said in presenting their statements that the amendment is dangerous. "No tax expert of recognized ability, no leading legal authority in the state and no legislator, to my knowledge," he added, "is in favor of the amendment which is being promoted by idle, vacant land holders who want to have the state hold the sack in a grab-bag scheme of education."

RELIEF

The prime motive behind President Hoover's big business convention was hallyhoo for the new relief program.

A billion dollars and more will be thrown into trade within the next 60 days. The R. F. C. will do the throwing.

That ought to push things upward another notch. Those in command are not so sure. They confidently point out a weakness in the thing. It is that more of those dollars will go into machines than into unemployed hands.

That is regrettable but unavoidable.

The inside understanding is that San Francisco will get her bridge, New York her tunnel. Pennsylvania is scheduled for about $10,000,000 instead of the $45,000,000 she asked for. The railroads will get just as much as the government can push off on them. (That will not be much.) The slums clearance may be delayed by technicalities about their self-liquidating nature.

Before election day most of the money will be out and the various works will be under way.

AHEAD

The idea of a strong agency to make business men expand was broached in private conference meetings by the Administration. It fell flat. It is a cinch the commodity set up will NOT try any strong arm tactics to stimulate initiative.

Business men made it fairly clear what they wanted. They would like to take government credit when and if they think they need it—not otherwise. They were not very strong for borrowing money to buy things they do not need now.

The undertone of the meeting was one of cautious optimism. The business men listened politely. They applauded before and after the President's speech—not once during it. Their sales resistance to pep talks could be rated about 50 per cent.

Their general opinion was that the corner has been turned. They also generally believed the uphill climb should be undertaken conservatively.

REST

The public explanation that Presidential Press Secretary Joslin needed a long rest reversed the inside situation about his vacation. It was Mr. Hoover who needed the rest. Joslin's excitability was contagious. He infected all with whom he came in contact.

The understanding when he left was that a nice soft spot would be found for him elsewhere. Subsequent developments may change that.

TROUBLE

The President inadvertently stepped into new trouble when he chose Edward T. Clark as Joslin's successor. Clark was probably the ablest man who could be chosen for that job. He was to have remained for the duration of the campaign, probably longer.

Some papers made much of the fact that he had been lobbyist for the Louis K. Liggett drug interests. They made it appear the drug interests were getting into the White House.

The truth was that Mr. Hoover has been trying to get Clark as a secretary since he entered the White House. Clark was a Coolidge associate who knows every politician in the country by his front name. The drug business had nothing to do with the delay in tying up with Hoover. The Coolidge business had.

The furore will prevent Clark from continuing in the Hoover service beyond the campaign.

CLOUD

The Administration sent two confidential observers into Illinois and Iowa last week. It was fearfully watching growth of the farm and mine strike.

Precedents were quietly dug up in a search for a guiding policy. They may be working overtime presently.

It is clear that if the strikes interfere with interstate commerce the President may be forced to act. Cleveland used troops to move the mails in a Chicago railway strike.

One of the better exposés of Washington is William P. Helm's new book "Washington Swindle Sheet." It deals factually with figures, not with caulkings from social henhouses. For that reason it may not be as widely read as some of the insignificant and salacious tales. Its exposure of Congressional mileage graft and White House expenses are taken from budget figures. Names appear that one would not expect to see.

NOTES

The White House cancelled radio broadcasting arrangements for the business conference. It found at the last minute the strongest obstacle to success of the conference was business men that it was a Hoover Republican speech.

The best was made by Atlee Pomerene, Democratic chairman of the R. F. C. The best speech was by Franklin Fort head of mortgage reliefs who was the only one with something new to offer—a 60 day moratorium on mortgages. The crowd made him take two bows.

Movie men were excluded from the hall but Mr. Hoover posed for them in the White House backyard later in the day, repeating part of his speech.

BELL OFFICIALS HERE TO STUDY RELIEF PLAN

NEW YORK By James McMullin
ELECTION Highly placed representatives of the British Dominions, passing through New York on the way home from Ottawa, expressed the firm conviction that Hoover would be re-elected and that it is best for this country that he should be. This is significant of British sentiment in high quarters.

An extremely well-informed commentator with internationally-known Republican affiliations in this city is betting even money that Roosevelt will be elected, but two to one on Coolidge to beat Roosevelt if the former president were the nominee.

GOVERNOR

At present it looks as if V. Trubee Davison has the inside track of unofficial Administration support in his candidacy for Governor of New York. Campaign funds are a factor in the preference. There may be a shift if Colonel Donovan demonstrates sufficient ability in getting the ghost to walk.

COMMODITY CREDIT

The Commodity Finance Corporation has found a useful mission in life after all. Its own directors thought they would have nothing to do when it was formed. Now they find that many interior banks are willing to give acceptances to good customers to whom they cannot extend loans on account of their own credit position. Hitherto there has been no market for such acceptances in New York. Banks here could not be bothered with checking up on unknown ratings. The Commodity Corporation is going to make a local market for these acceptances, which should be helpful to southern and western purchasers.

TREASURY FINANCE

Treasury officials have been in New York this week trying to sell local bankers the idea of a long term issue to take care of September financing. The argument isn't settled but they have not had much luck to date. Bankers here say that such an issue would hurt the market value of 3 per cent Treasury bonds at present outstanding.

There is a good chance that Liberty 4 1-2s will be called for payment in December. The Federal Reserve Bank has been doing some heavy buying of this issue which will make things easier for the Government.

There are three houses which "make the market" for all Government obligations. They are variably consulted by Treasury and Federal Reserve officials before new steps in Government finance are taken.

BONDS

The American Securities Investing Corporation took some profits for itself last week by selling off some of its earlier holdings. Subscribing banks are delighted with operations to date.

BANKS

A high official of the local Federal Reserve Bank says that credit deflation is really over. The slight drop in member bank loans still going on is due to a final housecleaning of unhealthy accounts.

Local banks are pleased with signs of continued deboarding. Currency in circulation dropped 22 million dollars last week as against a rise of 42 million dollars in the corresponding week a year ago.

FINANCING

A large food corporation has practically had to go into the banking business to take care of its jobbers and wholesalers. For many months the corporation has extended unusual credit facilities to its customers to finance purchases when commercial banks refused to act.

CITY GOVERNMENTS PLAN TO ORGANIZE

A meeting of the "City Dads" of incorporated cities of Orange county will be held at Ketter's cafe, here Friday night, September 2, at which time plans will be discussed for forming an Orange county League of Municipalities. It was announced at the city council meeting last night.

Mayor Paul Witmer asked that all councilmen from Santa Ana attend the meeting in person. Re-organization of the state league is being made and Orange county has been invited to enter as a county. Mayors and councilmen from virtually all cities will be present.

Large Order for Hymnals Placed

The largest single order of hymnals ever placed with a single concern has been given to the Kingsport Press by The Christian Science Publishing Society of Boston. It was learned here today.

The order consisted of 400,000 cloth-bound books and 10,000 de luxe full leather bound books. The books will be distributed throughout the world, beginning around September 1. All of the type for the plates used in the books was set by hand.

A total of 325 tons of paper will be used in the books, 40,240 yards of book cloth, 39,000 yards of head bands, seven tons of end paper material, 50 tons of cover board and more than 210,000 yards of muslin re-enforcement for the backs of the books.

BELL OFFICIALS HERE TO STUDY RELIEF PLAN

Through the successful methods used by members and officers of the Unemployed Association of Santa Ana, the fame of the organization is fast spreading over the entire state of California. Each day more letters are received, many of them from large cities, and more representatives from other cities call at the local headquarters to learn the methods used by the local unemployed group in caring for themselves.

Yesterday, late in the afternoon, a large group of officials from the city of Bell met with directors of the organization, J. S. Smart, chairman of the Citizen's Emergency Relief committee, and Mayor Paul Witmer.

The group came to Santa Ana for the express purpose of learning how the unemployed groups here provide themselves with the necessities of life through their own efforts. They were shown through the headquarters on North Main street, shown the records and equipment in use, and told how the association operated.

Included in the visiting group were Mayor Martin L. Kinney, City Treasurer William G. Ross, Councilman Charles A. Fischer, William L. McCarthy, chief of police, Frank R. Kronenberger, president of the chamber of commerce and R. J. Gipple, executive secretary of the Bell unemployed group.

MRS. E. STANDRING IS CALLED BY DEATH

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Standring, 87, a resident of Santa Ana for the past 24 years, passed away at her home, 515 East Fifth street, late yesterday after an extended illness.

She was the widow of the late Captain J. T. Standring, who passed away some years ago. She is survived by six sons, L. S. Standring and Sam P. Standring, of Santa Ana, Ven V. Standring of Des Moines, Iowa, John H. Standring, of Brawley, L. H. Standring, of Breckenridge, Minn., and T. Wirt Standring, of Phoenix, Arizona.

Mrs. Standring was a well known resident of this city, having been very active in the Congregational church here and in the Woman's Relief Corps in past years. She had always been active in religious social circles, and leaves many friends to mourn her death.

Funeral services will be held at a date to be announced later by the Winbiger Funeral home, 609 North Main street.

ECLIPSE CLIMAX DUE HERE AT 11:58 A. M. TOMORROW

Peering skyward between 11:10 a. m. and 12:40 p. m. tomorrow, residents of Santa Ana and Orange county will be able to see the partial eclipse as the moon comes between the earth and sun. The peak is scheduled at 11:58 a. m.

With telescopes and long range cameras already trained aloft, New England awaits the awe-inspiring total eclipse tomorrow. Elsewhere the eclipse will be but partial. On this district about 15 per cent of the sun's surface will be covered by the moon.

While watching the spectacle, observers are warned to use smoked glass, or pieces of old photographic film or plate to protect eyes from the blinding light.

From all over the world, hundreds of scientists are gathered in New England. Although astronomers predominate, there are also chemists, meteorologists, physicists, zoologists and alienists, all prepared to study the phenomena in the light of their own problems.

The astronomers, some from as far away as Japan, marked time awaiting 4:30 p. m., eastern standard time, when for about 99 seconds they expect to be able to study the sun in eclipse.

Together with the city of Santa Ana's protest are requested to be present. The meeting will be held at the city hall.

CROSSING HEARING DATE IS CHANGED

The proposed meeting of the state railroad commission here to determine whether the gates over the railroad crossings on East Fourth street shall be removed, as per a request made by the Santa Fe Railway Company has been changed from Friday, September 2, to September 1.

Notice of the change was made last night at the city council meeting.

Persons who desire to protest against the removal of the gates,

Phone Franchise Sold for 50 Years

The Southern California Telephone company, last night was announced as the successful bidder for the city's telephone franchise and a resolution adopted granting the franchise to the company.

The bid of the Southern California Telephone company was the only one made. The bid was $400, which was accepted and the franchise is to run for a period of 50 years. A 20 year franchise has just expired.

CANDIDATES SPEAK AT JOBLESS MEET

At an open meeting, held as an educational feature for members of the Unemployed association of Santa Ana last night in the assembly room of the Unemployed headquarters on North Main street, several candidates for public offices spoke briefly.

Included in the group was J. F. Lamp of Orange, who spoke in behalf of Clyde C. Downing, candidate for state senator, who was unable to be present due to a meeting at Anaheim; Robert Speed, candidate for state assemblyman; W. C. Jerome, W. B. Martin, John Knox, B. T. Dowden and Stanley Goode, candidates for supervisor from this district; and Mrs. Louise Mock, candidate for the state assembly.

A. B. Cline presided over the meeting, introducing the candidates.

Mexican Sentenced On Battery Count

Charged with battery, Alphonse Olivares, 40, laborer of 2106 West Fifth street, was sentenced to serve 30 days in the county jail, in Judge J. G. Mitchell's court yesterday.

He is alleged to have staged a fight at 2006 West Fifth street yesterday morning with Tom Luenanes, in which Luenanes was reported as badly beaten up.

Officers W. H. Heard and D. W. Wolford made the arrest.

STUDENT TALKS ON 2 RELIGIONS IN WORLD TODAY

ORANGE, Aug. 30.—William Klaustermeyer, student at the Concordia seminary at St. Louis, Mo., delivered the sermon at the Lutheran church Sunday morning in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. A. G. Webber. Mr. Klaustermeyer took as the text for his sermon the scripture found in First Corinthians, first chapter and 22nd and 24 verses.

The student preacher said in part: "We may speak of only two religions existing in the world—those without Christ and that one with Christ as its theme. The former embraces all the religions of the world from the grossest forms of idolatry in darkened Africa to the self-righteous teachings of modernism today. The true Christian church stands alone in that it has as its theme a dying Saviour. Our theme is this, we preach Christ crucified. This is folly to the world. It cannot accept the doctrine of a dying Christ."

"All during the Old Testament the Jews required signs. Moses had to warn them against false prophets who performed miracles. When God wished to send Moses to Egypt, he asked the Lord to give him a sign whereby to prove to Pharaoh and his own people that the Lord had sent him. When Jesus arrived, he had to tell them, as we read in John's Gospel: 'Except ye see signs and wonders ye will not believe.'"

"How often do we also not require signs of God today? So often we aren't satisfied with His pure and simple Word, but demand signs and wonders. While the Jews required signs, the Greeks sought after wisdom. They saw as their ideal, the attainment of all knowledge. But in no instance can it be shown that they ever rescued a single sinner from his perdition with the use of their philosophy."

"Today the world is filled with rationalism, and the divine Bible truths which we hold in such high esteem are many times entirely forgotten. This preaching of Christ crucified which the world regards as folly is to a Christian the power and wisdom of God."

"It is a power to convert us. This converting power is shown by the example of St. Paul. He was a bitter enemy of Christ until he became converted. After that he was one of the staunchest defenders of Christ. This complete change in his life was brought about alone through the grace and power of God. His

Public Benefits of Savings Banks

ECONOMISTS point out two great benefits of savings banks to the public generally.

Well-managed banks, like Security-First National, stimulate prudent thrift by providing a place where small but steady deposits, accumulating with compound interest, may be safe, from both the hazards of fire and theft, and of unwise investment or heedless spending.

These accumulations of small sums, thus encouraged, grow into important aggregates. The grand total of savings deposits in California is above two billion dollars, and this money, judiciously loaned by the banks, is a strong support of the general progress and prosperity of the State.

NEED OF NEW PARTY CITED BY SPEAKER IN ATTACK ON PROPAGANDA OF LIQUOR MEN

ORANGE, Aug. 30.—Speaking at a public meeting at the high school last night, Dr. Leigh Colvin, of New York, declared that the moral forces of America must accept the challenge to align themselves on the side of right and principle and save America from the most colossal moral reaction of modern times; for if America fails, civilization will collapse, he continued.

Faced by a situation when both may believe it is because of their political parties have succumbed to wet propaganda, the dries of the country have the alternative of rolling up a conscience vote representative of the American people. Vote, voice and influence must be used by the dries, he said.

Introduced as a "man who understands the philosophy of government," Dr. Colvin stated that this is a government by party, and both parties have framed wet platforms. With these platforms comes advocacy of state regulation of liquor traffic.

However, prohibition is a national problem whose consequences cannot be confined to the state. In suggesting state rule, the parties are ready to accept a policy of government which annihilates the Lincoln standard, he said. Abraham Lincoln's statement that "This nation cannot be half slave and half free," applies as well to the enforcement of the 18th amendment, he brought out.

Campaign Outlined

Already far advanced with their propaganda, there is no doubt but that the wets would go far in their program of liquor traffic once they had gained control in even part of the states. Supplies to bootleggers in dry states could easily be furnished, and there would be no way of solving the bootlegging menace, he declared. The wets have all in readiness for the advertising campaigns they are to conduct when repeal is submitted to the states, the speaker said.

The wets' statement that the saloon is not to return with liquor is a mere screen, the speaker continued. Be it termed a saloon or a beer garden, a place where liquor is sold legitimately, becomes a political center. Alcohol makes possible the purchase of votes; liquor becomes a power, Dr. Colvin stated.

"The 18th amendment represents the well-considered decision of the nation, that alcohol is detrimental to all high advancement," Dr. Colvin said. "The Wickersham committee did not grasp the real import of the law."

Few Wet Districts

There are really comparatively few totally wet districts, but in this time of stress and confusion, even people of great intelligence are misled by the propaganda of the minority forces. People must be led by the spirit of propaganda in the November election. This is not the first time when the opposition of political parties has had to be faced.

"In California, for example, the dry majority increased in 1926 over 1922, despite the fact that the wets had declared it was the will of the people to do away with state prohibition."

"The states made prohibition laws by popular vote; the national prohibition law came into being by the amendment process, away from party control. The political parties have wets and dries just as they did before the amendment was passed and public officials are elected by political parties. With these two-sided constituents the official is dependent on that constituency for re-election to office. In many cases he does not enforce the law because he needs the support of the dries as well as the wets and vice versa."

Wets in Cabinet
"Through resulting propaganda, President Hoover no doubt was swayed and wet appointments were made on his cabinet in various instances. The plank adopted by Hoover's party provides that the 18th amendment be changed to allow any state to deal with the question as it pleases. Although some of the verbiage of the dries is included on the platform, the words have no significance when added to such a policy. The dries had no opportunity to offer suggestions at the Republican convention, for the chairman of the National Board of Strategy was not allowed to speak."

"With all of this, Hoover took a lower step than his party in his wet stand. He is the first president of the United States to take the oath of office to 'preserve, protect and defend the constitution' and then advocate a change in that constitution. In normal times, such action would call for impeachment in accordance with the laws of the land."

Weak Points Dominate
"In this coming election, the weak and not the strong points of the two presidential candidates dominate. Some are voting for Hoover as the lesser of two evils. Others plan to vote for Roosevelt, hoping that the dry Republicans thus will make a strong campaign against the wets, and win some of the wet members of their party on their side. If the Republicans win the election, they wet vote recorded in one county was larger than the total number of registered voters. As the state law did not provide for a recount when a law was concerned, nothing could be done about it.

There is a need for a new party, growing out of the best in both parties, the speaker said.

"What chance have decent citizens, when both parties have gone backward," he added. The good citizens should unite to gain control and utilize it for the public good. The philosophy of the prohibition party is to promote a union of those high morals, Dr. Colvin said.

Friends Class In Birthday Party At Huntington Beach

EL MODENA, Aug. 30.—A lively group of members of the Live Wire Sunday school class of the Friends church held their July and August birthday celebration at Huntington Beach recently. Long tables were arranged in the dining pavilion under the pier where a delicious covered dish supper was served at 6:30 o'clock. The remainder of the evening was spent in informal social manner.

Present were the teacher of the class, Mrs. Clyde Roberts, and daughter, Miss Caroline; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Beymer and children, Ellis and Eloise; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stearns and daughter, Pauline; Mrs. Lewis Smith and daughter, Virginia; Mrs. Prentice Curd and son, Floyd; Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Padlock, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bricks and son, Billy, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Koenig and son, Junior.

HELEN MEYER BECOMES BRIDE OF E. UNZELMAN

ORANGE, Aug. 30.—Masses of greenery and a profusion of white roses were used to decorate the living room of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Meyer, 132 North Cleveland street, Sunday evening, when the daughter of the home, Miss Helen Meyer, became the bride of Ernest Unzelman, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Unzelman, 349 South Shaffer street. The service was read by the Rev. A. C. Bode, pastor of the St. John's Lutheran church, and the processional, "Lover's Wedding March," was played by Eugene Wunderlich.

The young couple took their places beneath a white wedding bell suspended from an arch of fern and white roses. At each end of the arch were baskets of white blossoms. The bride was very lovely in a floor length gown of white satin and her filmy veil fell train length from its fastenings of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride's sister, Miss Esther Meyer, was maid of honor, and she was frocked in cream lace and carried an arm bouquet of Tailsman roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Martha Unzelman and Miss Dolores Gunther. Miss Unzelman was in blue crepe and Miss Gunther in tea rose crepe and both carried bouquets of sweetpeas in pastel tints. Robert Pargess served Mr. Unzelman as best man.

Preceding the ceremony, Mr. Wunderlich sang "O Perfect Love" and "In Heavenly Love Abiding." He was accompanied by Mrs. Wunderlich.

Mrs. Meyer, the mother of the bride, wore her own wedding gown of soft white silk trimmed with lace, which she had worn on an equally happy occasion 21 years ago. Mrs. Unzelman, mother of the bridegroom, was gowned in brown flowered crepe. Both wore corsages of gardenias and sweet peas.

A reception was held after the ceremony and the bride cut the elaborately decorated wedding cake. A bevy of lovely young girls, close friends of the bride, assisted in serving the refreshments. They were Miss Esther Bandick, Miss Myrtle Schaefer, Miss Ellen Heidtcke and Miss Ella Bandick.

For traveling the bride chose a smart ensemble of silk crepe in a deep tone of wine with trimmings of black fur and black accessories. After a honeymoon trip the young people are to return to Orange where they will reside.

Mrs. Unzelman is a graduate of the Orange Union High school and of St. John's parochial school. She finished the high school course last year and Mr. Unzelman finished the same course in 1929. He is a graduate of the Immanuel church day school.

ORANGE, Aug. 30.—Remodeling of the Lee grocery store on North Glassell street is well under way. The building has been used by one firm longer than any other mercantile establishment in Orange, having been opened 42 years ago by E. T. Lee, whose name appeared on the windows until the present time.

After E. T. Lee's death his son, J. E. Lee, continued the business. Mr. Lee will open a neighborhood grocery further north on North Glassell street and the storehouse is to be used by E. H. Sohre as a market. Sohre formerly operated and owned the market at the Piggly Wiggly.

PUBLIC ASKED NOT TO SMOKE AT HIGH SCHOOL

"No Smoking" signs will be placed in prominent locations both in the high school auditorium and back stage in the auditorium on nights when the building is used by organizations other than school groups. These signs were authorized by the board of education last night after D. K. Hammond, principal of the high school had asked for co-operation in the matter of enforcing the ruling against smoking on school property.

In making the request Hammond pointed out the fire hazard and said that when meetings are held in the auditorium school authorities experience considerable difficulty in preventing smoking backstage and in stage dressing rooms where considerable inflammable material is stored.

Permission to use the auditorium on two nights in September was granted the Mexican people by the board. The first meeting will be held next Thursday night when Consul Terrazos, stationed in Los Angeles will be here to address Mexicans of the county. The Mexican Honorary Commission was granted permission to use the auditorium on the night of September 15 for the presentation of a program in observation of the Mexican Independence Day. A request by the same organization to use the high school gymnasium for a dance on the following night was denied because the gymnasium floor has just been prepared for the basketball season and is not open for dancing.

"CHUCK WAGON" COMING TO S. A.

An old-time "chuck" wagon, such as was a common sight in the pioneer days of California, is scheduled to make its appearance in Santa Ana tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The wagon, which is shown below, will come here through the efforts of the Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce, which organization sponsors the annual World's Congress of Rough Riders and Rodeo, which will be held Labor Day at Olympic Stadium in Los Angeles.

OLD TIME "CHUCK" WAGON TO BE HERE

An old-time "chuck" wagon, such as was used in California's wild and woolly days, again is traveling historic paths and will arrive in Santa Ana at 10 a. m. Wednesday. Instead of pitted and rutted trails, the weather-worn vehicle is rolling over motor highways of the Southland.

The wagon's trip to Santa Ana was arranged through the Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce, which is making ready to conduct the second annual World's Congress of Rough Riders and Rodeo, to be held Labor Day, September 5, at Olympic Stadium in Los Angeles.

Another feature of the big spectacle this year will be a junior division of the grand entry, a colorful, glittering pageant in which 1000 crack riders from a score of nations will take part.

OPEN Y CAMP TO THE PUBLIC OVER HOLIDAY

Osceola, the Orange county Y. M. C. A. camp near Seven Oaks, will be open to the public as a week end camp over the Labor Day holiday. It was announced today by D. H. Tibbals of the Santa Ana association.

The Southern California Hi-Y training camp, now in session, will end on Friday, and the Baptist Young Peoples' Society of Santa Ana will go in for their annual retreat on Sunday afternoon. From Friday to Sunday, the camp will be available for all who wish to use it, and there will be room for many who may wish to remain until Monday. Campers will need to take their own blankets, but meals will be served regularly at the dining room at small cost.

The weather has been ideal at Osceola, according to Tibbals. The nights are chilly, but the days are clear and fine. There is plenty of water in the streams, and fishing is fair.

Families who wish to take advantage of the camp for the week end are requested to make their reservations at the Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. where additional information can be secured.

When the Baptist young people come out next Monday, the season at Osceola will be officially closed, after a very successful run of more than 10 weeks, during which time several hundreds of boys and a considerable number of girls and adults have enjoyed the camping and recreational privileges of this Y. M. C. A. resort. The management of the camp this season has been in the hands of J. B. Wilbur, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Orange, who has met with excellent success in carrying on the business and program work, assisted by the other Y men of the county.

GROWERS' FIELD MEET WEDNESDAY

A bean growers' field meeting will be held in the San Fernando valley at the Jack Andrews ranch Wednesday at 2 p. m. The Andrews ranch is located on Parthenia street, three-fourths of a mile west of Reseda boulevard.

The meeting will be held under the auspices of the Agricultural Extension Service. The purpose of the meeting is to give bean growers an opportunity to see experimental plots which are being carried on with the Hopi lima to determine the best spacing as well as the best dates for planting. Plantings in these test plots were made on May 9 and every 10 days thereafter until the middle of July. On the planting-distance tests, plots were established with rows 26 inches apart, 30, 34, 38 and 42 inches. Rows were also thinned so that various distances were obtained between plants within the rows. These distances between plants included the following spacings: four inches, eight inches, 12 inches, 16 inches, 20 inches and 24 inches.

An invitation to attend these meetings is extended to Orange county growers. Those interested who cannot attend these meetings may observe the Hopi No. 56 at the Plavcan ranch, San Juan Capistrano, or at the H. L. Wakeham ranch on North Bristol street, Santa Ana, according to Eric E. Eastman, assistant farm advisor.

4-H Members To Picnic Thursday

The 4-H, or Junior Agricultural and Home Economics clubs of Orange county will hold their annual beach party Thursday at Dana Point Beach.

The groups will proceed by automobile, leaving the Court House annex at 8 a. m. The day will be devoted to swimming and beach sports, with lunch on the beach. This is to be the third annual beach party at Dana Point. All persons interested in 4-H work are invited to attend, according to Eric E. Eastman, assistant farm advisor.

The Braille system which permits the blind to read was perfected by Louis Braille more than 100 years ago.

EMPLOY THREE ON STAFFS OF CITY SCHOOLS

Three additions to the teaching and administrative staffs of the Santa Ana school system were authorized last night at a special meeting of the board of education.

Miss Hubertene Kuehneman was employed as supervisor for the next year at an annual salary of $2400. In urging the appointment of supervisor Superintendent of Schools Frank Henderson pointed out that such a position would result in economies, through coordination of efforts and centralization of departments, that would make the appointment profitable.

Miss Kuehneman came to Los Angeles from Iowa where she taught in the high schools of Des Moines and Cedar Rapids. After a special course at the University of California at Los Angeles she joined the Los Angeles city school system where she has been a member of the supervisory staff.

Miss Florence Moreland was employed on a monthly basis as a home teacher in the Mexican schools of the city. Miss Moreland's work will consist of instruction in sanitation and home-making problems.

The appointment of T. P. McKee as attendance secretary, assistant counsellor and director of the auditorium at the high school, in addition to work on the athletic field was authorized by unanimous vote last night. McKee is to receive an annual salary of $1500. Under the policy adopted sometime ago by the board prohibiting the employment of a man and his wife in the school system, Mrs. McKee, who is teaching in one of the elementary schools, is expected to resign.

Walsh Sees Walker Victory Over Schmeling

WILLIAM BRAUCHER

Rancor comes out of the south-west and sometimes seems to tell me that a fellow named Fred Steers had better keep out of Texas.

It is an Olympic aftermath, and Babe Didrikson is the leading lady in the skill. Here is the background:

When Babe went to Chicago for the Olympic tryouts, the Dallas girl entered her name in eight events. She only wanted to make every place on the team. The official in charge of the Chicago event was Fred Steers. He tried to persuade the athletic miss from Texas to concentrate on fewer events and give the other girls a chance for a buggy ride.

WANTED MONEY'S WORTH
Babe didn't go for that chatter. The business men of Dallas had paid her expenses to the meet and had sent along a chaperone, Mrs. Henry Woods, who insisted on putting in her two cents' worth in the general argument.

Babe's Dallas coach was Colonel McCombs, and he told her she stood a chance to win every event in which women participated in the Olympics. As it turned out, she couldn't, of course, but the Babe did win the 80-meter hurdles, the javelin throw and came second in the high jump which was won by Jean Shiley.

After the Chicago events, Babe charged that the events had been arranged chronologically so that Babe couldn't compete in some, because the human body can be in only one place at a time.

MRS. WOODS HELPS
Mrs. Woods intermittently dashed onto the field to tell Babe that another event was just about to be run and for her to please hurry. Steers finally bade Mrs. Woods to scam and promised to have her arrested if she didn't keep off the field.

Anyway, it seems that Steers was the boss. At least Babe went to Los Angeles as competitor in three events instead of eight. But, while there, Miss Didrikson wrote the following letter to her mother:

"Dearest Mom—
"Won't be able to write much. Have a little time to write, so am gonna try to answer a few letters. All the girls went down to the dining room and are, I suppose, enjoying a program. I thought I would sneak up and get some letters off."

"Mom, Steers hates me like hell for a letter that appeared in a newspaper. Golly, he sure is pouring it on me, and I don't mean maybe. You know how he is, doesn't care what he says nor where he is when he says it, but I'm not going to pay any attention to him now. I'll fix him up after the Olympics."

"He got me mad, mom, a lot of times, but I keep my mouth shut. He said I had been writing letters to McCombs and that he didn't give a damn about McCombs, that he is my boss now and that he had to stop writing letters to that fellow McCombs. Golly, mom, if you only knew what was going on out here. I'm always being fussed at."

GLORIA GETS MAD
"He talked to all the girls on the bus and told them not to go around with me and for them not to speak to me, but Gloria Russell got plenty mad. Mom, she's a swell kid, but I like her, but he made us split up tonight. (The two girls were roommates.) He's trying to get my sunny side down, but he nor any one else can do that, 'cause colonel said keep it up. That's my orders and I'm carrying 'em out. Love, Babe."

"P. S.—Please don't let this get in the papers. I'll get hell if it does."

"L. S.—Fred Steers writes all kinds of bunk in the papers about what a poor sport I am. I suppose you have read it. It's hell, mom, really."

All of which is offered to you simply as a little picture of what goes on behind the Olympic scenes.

OLYMPIC ALTERS CARD
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 30.—(UP)—Ten four-round boxing bouts will be presented at the Olympic auditorium tonight, marking a new policy in the conduct of the fight arena. Hitherto at least one 10-round bout has been presented. Speedy Dado and Pedro Villanueva head the card.

Yankees Smash Record Of Great '27 Club
NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—(UP)—The New York Yankees, rolling merrily along toward the American league pennant, have set a new modern record by playing 129 games without being shutout once.

The second game of yesterday's doubleheader with the Chicago White Sox rounded out 129 encounters this year, including the protested game with Detroit.

This record surpassed the record of the great 1927 Yankee team under the late Miller Huggins, which was shutout in its 129th game.

SAVOLDI WRESTLES LONDOS Tomorrow
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 30.—(UP)—"Jumping Joe" Savoldi, former Notre Dame football player, and Jim Londos, title claimant, will meet in their first wrestling bout at the Olympic auditorium tomorrow night. ## MAX PUTS OFF TRAINING FOR RUGGED RIVAL

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
(I. N. S. Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—(INS)—Max Schmeling, the man who won the heavyweight championship while holding his head and lost it while holding the bag, is to begin training today at Speculator, N. Y. for his fight with Mickey Walker here September 19.

This will be his first mistake. He should have begun two weeks ago. His second is in going to Speculator at all. There isn't enough heat in the mountains for quick conditioning. He won't know about the third for some time. He won't know, in fact, until 20 days hence, when he goes in there to fight 15 rounds with a very rugged, resolute gentleman and finds himself "short."

If there is any chance of a fourth mistake, I'd say it might have to do with a matter of identity. He seems to have Walker mixed up with the man who comes around to collect the insurance. This perhaps is a natural error, due to the fact that he saw Walker and Risko in Miami, where the young man was mostly out seeking atmosphere and sarsaparilla and went to the arena that night after having absorbed a great deal of both.

In that condition, Mr. Walker is capable of making two kinds of a fight, (a) had (b) worse, but I happen to know that he's been down there at Summit, N. J., for three weeks without so much as a glass of orangeade and, when Walker is like that, the danger of gunpowder by comparison becomes pale and insipid.

There had been stories from Germany and from aboard ship that Schmeling was training daily for this fight but a check up with the man himself last week revealed these to be largely hearsay. In fact, he's been in his own admission, he hasn't had a glove on to do any boxing since the Sharkey fight, and regardless of what you may have thought of the decision, he didn't do quite enough that night, either.

So while I wouldn't want to declare outright that he's due to wind up down on the right field foul line, there isn't any doubt about one thing. He's giving himself every chance.

WHITE AND COULSON SCORE NET VICTORY
The triumph of Toby White and Dr. Kenneth Coulson over the favored tandem of Kenneth Ranney and Clarence Alden featured opening matches in the Santa Ana tennis doubles tournament at Frances Willard yesterday. White and Dr. Coulson won 4-6, 6-2, 6-1.

Other results: Wetherell and Wetherell defeated Rawlings and Caverly, 6-3, 6-3; Berry and West 6-4, Wade and Henry, 6-3, 7-5. The Dixon-Bettis vs. Dozier-Larimer match will be completed, both winning a set yesterday.

Wednesday's pairings: Finster-Robinson vs. winner Nissley-Weimer vs. Randall-Styring; Wetherell and Wetherell vs. White and Coulson; Rawlings and Caverly vs. Ranney and Alden; Wade and Henry vs. winner of Dixon-Bettis vs. Dozier-Larimer. (Last two matches at high school courts.)

DUCKS 4 GAMES TO GOOD IN P. C. RACE
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—With five weeks to go, Portland today held a four-game lead in the race for its first Pacific Coast pennant in 18 years.

The Ducks open a series against the tallent Missions in San Francisco today. This series should provide Tom Turner's lads a breathing spell before the crucial series they face in coming weeks. Next week they tackle Hollywood and then return home to battle San Francisco and Los Angeles in games that will decide the pennant race.

New Saints Get Outfits Tomorrow

That intriguing assignment of looking over Santa Ana high school's annual "new" crop of football talent will occupy the attention of Coach "Tex" Oliver tomorrow.

Although all non-members of the Saints' 1931 squad come under the general heading of "new" players and are scheduled to report for equipment, the summer will catch what transfer students may have arrived in Santa Ana since June. Nearly every fall this call brings out some seasoned player from another city. Last year, Doug Hinesly, a fine guard, moved here from Compton and helped make history with the Southern California champions.

Returning veterans of the 1931 squad were to check in at Andrews gymnasium today. Actual practice will begin at Pol-field Thursday.

BROWN, SMITH GIVE TROJANS TACKLE POWER
(Note: This is the second of seven articles on Trojan football prospects, taking up the subject by positions.)

BY AL WESSON
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 30.—Unless injuries or illness enter the picture, University of Southern California's football team will have about the strongest pair of tackles in the country this fall. The boys with the unusual names, Messrs. Smith and Brown, are Coach Howard Jones' first string men and anyone who makes the ambitious attempt to gain ground over them next fall will do so at the risk of life and limb.

Ernie Smith, who is sometimes affectionately called "Foot" by his opponents because of his number 14's which just can't be gotten out of the way even if Ernie himself is pushed aside, is ordinarily about as easy and pleasant to remove from his position as a pile of broken sidewalk chunks tied up in barbed wire. Out of condition he weighs 212, but when he gets in shape he fades away to 215.

Power Plays Go Over Him
Ernie was S.C.'s regular right tackle last year and was one reason why the Jones "power" plays, many of which hit over his position, went home so often. With a hard offensive charge he comes besides "Foot." Ernie is often called "Slip-horn" referring to his side tromboning. Out of football season, he leads a dance orchestra. He played in the Olympic band this summer and later went to the mountains to work on a road building crew. He is 22 and his height is 6'2 1/2. He came to S.C. from Gardena, HI and has won two varsity letters.

Brown and Smith's little brother couldn't say Ray so the Trojan captain-elect is going through life known as "Tax." He is just a little fellow compared with Smith as he weighs a mere 202 and is only 6 feet tall. However, despite his frail stature he does rather well playing with the big boys.

In fact, Coach Jones thought so well of him last year that after 1930, "I have no ambition to run a marathon with old man time. I want to have a good year in 1930 and then kiss baseball goodbye forever. This will be my last season, regardless. I have saved my money, am fixed for the future and in 1931 will buy a farm in Indiana or Kentucky and raise horses and cattle."

Burlough raised things all right, but it wasn't horses and cattle he raised cash with the Athletics and in the 1930 series, when he lost two tremendously fought games, and raised the devil with the same club last year, when he whipped them twice to give the Cards the championship and shatter Old Man Mack's dream of three world titles in a row.

Grimes Key Man
If the Cubs reach the world series—and it doesn't look as if anything short of a pestilence is going to stop 'em—Grimes is likely to be the key man of Grimm's pitching staff. Rated strictly off this year's records, Burlough, who has won out five or six games, doesn't look like the key man of anything. Illness and injuries have kept him out of action a greater part of the season and Burlough, a rugged soul despite his years, has to work to be in shape.

Right now Burlough is in shape, as his five-hit performance against the Giants last week testifies. And he's liable to stay that way, too, for the time's fast approach when the stakes'll be high and it's when the blue chips are on the felt that the 29-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Grimes of Polk county, Wisconsin hits his stride.

Trojans And Gaels Clash Again In '33

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 30.—(UP)—The Gaels of St. Mary's will meet the Trojans of Southern California probably the third Saturday of the 1933 football season, Arnold Eddy, graduate manager of S. C., announced today.

The contest was arranged by Coach "Slip" Madigan of St. Mary's and Willis Hunter of U. S. C. during the summer. Definite announcement of the date is expected to be made this week.

In 1931 the Gaels came south to upset the Trojans in the first game of the season. Southern California was undefeated for the remainder of the season. It was once reported that the Trojans would no longer meet the Moraga Marauders, and this appeared to be borne out when they were not included in the 1932 football schedule. It was indicated now that efforts are being made to find a regular spot on the Southern California schedule for the Gaels.

VINES, COCHET SEEDS FIRST FOR NATIONALS
NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—(UP)—Ellsworth Vines of Pasadena, Cal., and Henri Cochet of France, head the domestic and foreign seeded lists for the National Tennis championship tournament, the United States Lawn Tennis association announced today.

Other domestic seeded players are Wilmer Allison of Austin, Tex.; Frank Shields of New York; George Lott of Chicago; Sidney Wood of New York; Clifford Sutter of New Orleans; John Van Ryn of Philadelphia; Gregory Mangin of East Orange, N. J.; Dave Jones of New York and Keith Gledhill of Santa Barbara, Calif.

Later the U. S. L. T. A. limited the entry list to 92.

Vines' name was placed in the top place of the upper half of the brackets. Allison's headed the lower half. The committee then drew between Austin and Cochet to see which would be placed in Vines' half. The committee wanted the name to be "Austin" and it was. Thus Cochet went into the lower half and if the tournament works perfectly Vines and Cochet will meet in the final match.

Cochet's first opponent, to be played in the second round, will be Jake Hess of Fort Worth, Tex. Vines' first will be Charles R. Marks of New York.

SCHMELING BEGINS WORK FOR WALKER
SPECULATOR, N. Y., Aug. 30.—(UP)—Max Schmeling, former heavyweight champion, planned to open his training camp near here today in preparation for his 15-round battle against Mickey Walker at New York Sept. 19.

Max, with his manager, Joe Jacobs, and trainer, Max Machon, arrived last night from New York by train, after a scheduled airplane flight ended when the plane caught fire attempting to take off on the Hudson.

The pilot quenched the flames with a fire extinguisher.

Olympic Village Now Ghost Town Of Past History
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 30.—(INS)—Olympic Village, scene of feverish activity during the Olympic Games, was but a ghost town today.

There was a padlock on the post office following the departure of the New Zealand contingent and a huge sale of village articles was in progress at the administration building.

PACIFIC SOUTHWEST TENNIS LURES ACES
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 30.—(UP)—Tournament officials of the Tennis Patrons' Association of Southern California made plans today to give Western Tennis fans an opportunity to see many of the world's leading players in action. The Pacific Southwest tournament, to be conducted at the Los Angeles Tennis club September 19-25, may produce replicas of the national doubles championships at the Longwood Cricket club, it was announced.

Ellsworth Vines and Keith Gledhill, Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryn, the four national doubles leaders, have agreed to enter.

Others who are expected to participate include Jiro Satoh and Takeda Kuwabara of the Japanese Davis Cup team; Fred Perry, "Bunny" Austin, Edward Avery and John Oltiff of the English Davis Cup team; Giorgio de Stefani, Italy's Davis Cup player and Manuel Alonzo, Veteran Spanish player.

Charley Moore, manager of the Jersey City club in the International league, won three pennants in the last three years, two at Hartford and one for Macon.

ERRINGTON AND DEBUSK NAMED RIVAL HURLERS

Anaheim hopes to bury Santa Ana's dead tonight.

Leading three games to two, and a psychological favorite by far greater odds, Vic Rudy's Valencians expect to attend to the demise of George Lackaye's Stars when they meet in the sixth game of the "Little World Series" at Anaheim.

Victory will bring to Anaheim its first National Night league championship, and its initial participation in the Southern California titular series. Valencia fans have awaited the dawn of this phenomena for years, no fans in the circuit being more hungry than Anaheim's and there will be celebrating far, far into the night when Rudy's hirelings finally get across the Rubicon.

Anaheim thought it had the pennant in the bag this time last summer when it had the Stars three games to one, only to have Santa Ana win three games in rapid succession and blast George Pace and his crew clear out of the league.

There will be no such disaster this season for Rudy knows anything about it. He has definitely decided to pitch his No. 1 man, "Fuzzy" Errington, who holds three series decisions over the defending champions, rather than risk another game by using lackadaisical Bob Rose.

Santa Ana will depend on Pitcher Ira DeBusk, and otherwise the same team which started the horrible 21-6 affair last Friday.

Lackaye, still confident, is willing to pass that one off as a bad night for all concerned, and he denied vigorously that he contemplated any sort of a switch or shakeup either in lineup or batting order. Santa Ana will do or die with the same men who have carried the brunt of the attack throughout the series.

"Gony" Wilcox will catch, with Ed Daley at first base, George Preble second, Tom Denney third, "Memph" Hill short, and Leavitt Daley, Rod Ballard and "Roxy" Merrill in the outfield.

Francis Lewon will be Errington's batterymate as usual, with Al Higgins at first base, Jim McNabb second, Al Kohler third, Phil Schrott shortstop, and Randolph Bell, Orr Schuchardt and Max Moody in the pastures.

Anaheim's overwhelming triumph in the "edge" contest and the fact that it is playing on home soil tonight makes the Valencia a 2-1 choice. Critics believe that Higgins, Kohler, Schuchardt and Moody, Anaheim barmen who had been helpless before Santa Ana pitching in previous encounters, will now hit closer to their proper stride, which will add tremendously to the Valencia's offense.

Should Santa Ana—admittedly more dangerous behind than ahead—upset the dope, again, and square the series, a seventh game would be necessary to determine the championship. It would be played here next Friday.

If Anaheim wins, Santa Ana's 1932 night ball season will have been completed. The Stars would then check in their equipment while Anaheim continues operations against Riverside or Rialto for the Southern Cal. pennant.

Riverside got the jump in the Inland series by beating Rialto, 6-3, at Colton, last night.

WORLD SERIES WILL OPEN SEPTEMBER 28
NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—(UP)—If the New York Yankees and Chicago Cubs meet in the 1932 world series, the first two games will be played in Yankee stadium, New York, beginning about Sept. 28.

The next three games will be played at Chicago, and if additional contests are necessary to determine the winner of four out of seven possible games, they will be in New York.

The major league season closes Sept. 25, and it is the custom to open the world series two or three days afterward.

TRICKY COURSE OPENS BIG PRO PLAY TO MANY
ST. PAUL, Aug. 30.—(UP)—Slyly trapped fairways and greens will award the National Professional golf championship, starting at Keller course today, to the consistent rather than the long-hitting golfer.

Of a field of 105 of the nation's best pros, one has bettered par on two practice rounds and only half a dozen have equalled or excelled par, for one round.

From a resume of what the stars have been able to do during the leisurely practice rounds it appeared that 160 may be good enough to qualify. Thirty-two players will survive medal play.

Walter Hagen, winner of the Western Open last month, and reportedly "hot", was spoken of most prominently for the title. Harry Cooper, Canadian Open champion, admits that Keller course in two previous open tournaments was more than kind to him. Cooper won the 1930 open and was well up in the money last year.

Both Olin and Mortle Dutra of California took the fancy of galleries during the practice rounds. The west coast brothers both hit sizzling drives and were putting well.

MAN HURT IN ICE MACHINE MAY RECOVER

FULLERTON, Aug. 30.—Elwood Cordes, 23, whose right leg was amputated Sunday night in the scoring machine of the Orange County Ice company, is still in a serious condition at the Fullerton general hospital, but it is thought by doctors caring for him he will recover.

Cordes, who displayed remarkable courage at the time of the accident, hung for more than an hour in the scoring machine before he was rescued, and then directed his rescuers as to how to extricate him.

The fact that his rescue was made possible, and that he did not bleed to death was considered little more than miraculous. Cordes worked alone at night at the plant, located at Truslow and Harvard avenues, and was caught in the machine a short time before 10 p. m. The fact that he did not bleed to death was that his overalls formed a perfect tourniquet in twisting in the machine. After the rescuers arrived, he told them how to shut off the motor, which was burning and filling the room with its smoke.

Cordes resides at 218 West South street, Anaheim. Sunday night, at about 10:45 o'clock, Kurt Epstein, Anaheim, stopped at the plant at Truslow and Harvard to get some ice. He heard Cordes calling, and although it was hard to hear, for the injured man was caught in the machinery in the ice room and the heavy doors were closed, Epstein understood Cordes to say he was fastened in the machinery with his leg cut off.

Epstein rushed across to W. H. Pettigrew, a neighbor waiting for a man to pick him up and take him to work, and the two broke into the plant. In the meantime, John Trexler, police officer, saw the smoke from the burning motor of the machine, and summoned the fire department that made a run to the point, and was there just in time to assist with the rescue.

Builders Active In Cypress Area

CYPRESS, Aug. 30.—Considerable building activity is going on in Cypress at present. Remodeling of LaRue's store is nearing completion. The J. W. Fuquay block, which was recently torn down, is now being rebuilt into a new and better garage.

Work on the school is progressing rapidly. Two rooms are being torn down to make way for the new addition. As soon as this work is completed construction work will begin at which time as many as possible of the local men will be given employment.

For more than 24 years, "Old Faithful," a geyser in Yellowstone National Park, has spouted at average intervals of 65 minutes.

POLICE MAKE QUICK ARREST AFTER ROBBERY

In less than 24 hours after the Chastain Express company office at Orange had been burglarized and $350 worth of drugs and coffee stolen, police arrested Phillip S. Hunt, 26, lodging him in the county jail on a burglary charge.

The burglary was committed sometime before daylight Saturday morning, a short time after a truck had brought the drugs, assigned to four Orange druggists, to Orange. A pass key was used on the front door allowing the intruder entrance.

Hunt was almost immediately suspected, other employees reporting that he was a disgruntled ex-employee and that he had made threats to "get even" with the company, which is a subsidiary of the Triangle Express company.

Sergeant C. W. Wolford and Chief of Police E. F. Richards of Orange went to the Hunt home at 216 East Cubbon street, Santa Ana, soon after the burglary was committed, but he was not at home. Later they arrested him. After drilling him for some time, he admitted he committed the burglary and took the officers to an orange grove near Cypress where the box of drugs was uncovered under a range tree. The three cartons of coffee, also reported stolen, were recovered in Orange.

Skipper Upsets Fishing Plans Of 2 Gate City Men

Two San Bernardino men chartered a boat at Newport Beach Saturday to go fishing, but the skipper of the boat, one Manuel Corderio, got so drunk after the boat left the harbor that the lessees became frightened, hailed another boat and came back forgetting to fish altogether, according to a report made at the sheriff's office.

Corderio became too drunk to sail his boat and it drifted throughout the day, finally drifting into shore near Crystal Cove, where it was taken in charge by George J. Hoey, a special deputy sheriff, who drove Corderio to his home at Newport Beach and then called the sheriff's office.

Flashlight User Nabbed at Party

A. W. Dale, garage proprietor, of Grand avenue, was taken into custody late Saturday night at 530 South Van Ness street, when he was caught on the front porch of the house flashing a light around, according to a report filed with the police.

The arrest was made by H. D. Edwards, special deputy sheriff, who was a guest at the party taking place at that address at the time.

Neighbors who saw the man flashing the light in the yard called the house and Edwards went out and caught Dale. Dale was not held when it was learned that Edwards did not want to sign a complaint. Dale reported he had been called to the house and admitted flashing his light. He said he was going to the front door at the time he was taken in charge.

Police led the horse to the school grounds on West Seventeenth street where they kept it until day light and then the poundmaster took charge.

MANY TOURISTS VISIT STATE FOR OLYMPICS

A total of 384,400 tourists from other states in the United States and from foreign countries was in Southern California during the Olympic Games, according to figures released today by the All-Year club of Southern California.

According to a survey made by the club through questionnaires and personal interviews, it was found that the average tourist expenditure in the 19 Southern counties was $115.52, which means the visitors left $44,405,888 in cash in this section.

The preponderance of visitors arrived by motor.

On August 6, for three consecutive summers, a ten-hour check of autos with out-of-state licenses was made by the club at Willshire and Western, Los Angeles. The purpose was to establish the density of the flow of tourist traffic and the calibre of the tourists themselves.

A total of 1815 tourist cars was counted on the 1932 check, an increase of 40.2 per cent over 1931 and 20.7 per cent over 1930.

In the 1932 check, cars were tallied from 47 states, District of Columbia, and 10 foreign countries. The current check showed the number of foreign countries represented was more than double the number in 1931.

Workmen Prepare For Downtown Business Building

WILL TAKE 30 DAYS TO RAZE OLD STRUCTURE

Work started today on wrecking the old French building at the northeast corner of Fourth and Main streets, in the heart of the downtown business section, preparatory to erection of a modern store and office building which will cost approximately $75,000, according to announcement made from the office of William Rohrbacher, contractor who was awarded the contract for razing the building.

The first work in tearing down the old building will be done upstairs, where doors and windows will be removed. Other parts of the building will be torn down as soon as feasible.

It will be impossible for the contractors' crew of workmen to start demolition of the walls of the building or removal of the roof until the tenants of the stores below on the ground floor have moved out. However, a canopy was expected to be erected around the building in the immediate future to safeguard the public from injury while the razing of the building goes on. Work is now under way at the old site of the Santa Ana Hardware company, just west of the First National bank as the new location for the Kelley Drug store.

It was expected that it will take about 30 days to complete tearing down the building now on the site where the new edifice will be erected. A crew of six men was put to work on the job.

Word from the office of W. Horace Austin, architect who is preparing complete plans for the building, indicated that it will be from two to three weeks before the final plans for the entire building are completed.

Contract for the erection of the $75,000 building has not yet been let, and will not be awarded until the plans are completed and bidding contractors have had time to look them over.

Following two attempts to form syndicates to raise money for erecting the building on the central business property, Mrs. Emma L. French, owner of the property, came to the decision to build the new edifice with her own capital.

The new building will be two stories high, according to present plans, but will be augmented by a tower which will be erected on the corner of the structure facing the street intersection. A full basement will be constructed under the building.

PACKING HOUSE DEFENDANT IN DAMAGE ACTION

Alleged violation of a contract that allowed 12 1-2 acres of spinach to grow old and worthless in the field is due for an airing in superior court. T. A. Worthy, Wintersburg rancher has filed suit against Cutler-Lobinger Packing company of Fullerton seeking $3300 damages for spinach which that company allegedly contracted for and refused to accept.

According to Worthy he signed an agreement with the packing house whereby he planted, cultivated and raised 15 acres of spinach. The packing house had agreed to take the vegetable and pay for it at $20 per ton in addition to supervising its harvest.

In Worthy's complaint he alleges that the contract was signed September 7, 1923 and early in 1929 the spinach was ready for harvest. He said that the crop was of excellent grade and suitable for canning.

The packing company, according to contract did supervise the harvesting of 33 tons of the vegetable off two and one-half acres of the Worthy ranch and then, according to the complaint, refused to accept the remainder of the crop. The spinach accepted was paid for at $20 per ton, according to agreement, making a total of $660.

According to Worthy the packing company's refusal to accept the balance of the crop caused him a loss of $3300 when the spinach was allowed to become old and worthless in the field.

NEW EVIDENCE IS FOUND IN 1920 MURDER

The Orange county sheriff's office today started proceedings for extraditing Porfirio Lopez from Ogden, Utah, on a charge of murder.

The man is accused of having aided in the murder of Leonisno Guerrero, 60, nicknamed "Nicho," at Westminster on the night of September 12, 1920. Lopez, escaping soon after the crime is alleged to have been committed, was arrested in Ogden several days ago and the local sheriff's office notified.

Since that time officers have been at work attempting to locate witnesses to the 12-year-old crime and L. H. Nicholson returned here last night from Santa Clara, where he interviewed one Merced Padilla, who was at the house the night Guerrero was killed.

With the information he obtained, the sheriff's office announced it was ready to return Lopez here for trial in the case. The Ogden police announced they would hold Lopez in jail there until August 30, pending word as to whether authorities here wanted him for the crime.

Guerrero was killed with a beat knife in a fight.

After the gifts were bestowed upon the little honoree, outdoor games were enjoyed and a watermelon feed was held.

Her guests were Ellen, Gertrude and Elsie Barber, Mae Reese, Florine Hamilton, Betty Berry, Lois Dexter, Lois and Eunice Jordan, Eloise Buck, Marjorie Zumwalt, Mildred Everitt, Pauline Price, Lily Anderson, Eulimma McCannish, June Howard, Glee Guthrie and Frances Prindle.

NEW S. A. BUSINESS BLOCK

Here's how the northeast corner of Fourth and Main streets will look when present plans are completed and the new building which will cost around $75,000 has been erected by Mrs. Emma L. French, owner of the central business property. W. Horace Austin, who designed the Masonic Temple here, and who worked jointly with Frank Lansdown in making plans for the Bowers Museum, is the architect. Work started today in tearing down the old building on the site of the proposed new and modern office and storeroom structure.

ALL REQUEST PROGRAM FOR LAST CONCERT

Next Thursday evening the Santa Ana Municipal band under the direction of D. C. Cianfoni will clove its summer season of concerts in Birch park with an all-request program, entitled "California Night."

This program has been deemed necessary by Director Cianfoni in answer to scores of letters from admirers of this musical organization, which has provided entertainment for thousands during the summer. Not only does the program proper consist entirely of request numbers, but all encores also will be played in answer to requests.

The program will open with the performance of Chambers' march, "Chicago Tribune"; this march will be followed by the overture, "Zampa," by Herold.

Following the overture to "Zampa" the band will play a selection from the light opera, "The Desert Song" by Sigmund Romberg, which has enjoyed wide favor both in its stage and screen versions. This selection to be played on Thursday will consist of favorite numbers from the operetta.

The fourth number on the program will be an intermezzo by Director Cianfoni entitled, "California Whispering Pines," which Cianfoni composed in 1927. This composition along with all the others by Cianfoni has its place in the Composers' Library in Rome. "The California Whistling Pines" has met with acclamations both in America and abroad.

The next number to be played on Thursday's program will be the symphonic poem, "Finlandia" by Jean Sibelius. This work is a masterpiece that is widely played by foremost symphonic organizations of both continents. It paints the feelings of an exile upon his homecoming, and is redolent of the Finnish landscape, replete with weird melodies, suggesting the Nordic folk-lore.

The following number will be a vocal number to be sung by the Santa Ana Municipal chorus. This chorus will sing a group of three selections, consisting of, (a) "The Gypsy Love Song" from "The Fortune Teller" by Victor Herbert; (b) "Tingle-Ingles" from the "High Links" by Rudolf Friml; and (c) "Sweetheart" from "Maytime" by Sigmund Romberg.

Following the vocal numbers, the band will play another composition by Cianfoni, "The Titanic Wreck." This composition, which is perhaps the most dramatic by Cianfoni, pictures vividly the disaster occurring when the ship, Titanic, rammed her prow into an iceberg on her maiden voyage. The effect of this number is powerful and dramatically tragic, and has met with unanimous praise wherever it has been played.

Adding the necessary gay note to the program, the band will next play that famous waltz by Johann Strauss, "The Blue Danube" full of typical Viennese rhythms and melodies. Next will follow the performance of the song written by Cianfoni, "The City of Music." This song will be sung by the Santa Ana Municipal chorus.

The distribution of copies of the song will take place during the intermission of the concert, among the audience for permanent possession and will be a souvenir gift of the last concert of the season. The concert program will be closed by Sousa's march, "Stars and Stripes Forever."

Grab Man For Drunk Cycle Riding Here

Driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor is not so unusual, but Santa Ana police found a new type of lawbreaker of this nature at 2:45 p. m. Saturday when they arrested a drunken Mexican attempting to ride a bicycle at Bush and East Seventeenth street.

The man was not booked for "drunk driving," but was lodged in the county jail on a drunk charge and a pint of whiskey found on his person, and the bicycle was brought to the police station.

The man, too drunk at the time to give his name, was trying to ride the bicycle, but every time he got on, he fell off, police reported. Officers C. W. Wolford and Harry Prichard made the arrest.

PENTATHLON ATTRACTS 100 BOYS TO GYM

More than 100 boys have enrolled in the new Y. M. C. A. gymnasium classes and started work during the past week on the new "pentathlon" program which is to run through the fall months.

Older boys, from 12-13 upward, come on Monday and Thursday afternoons, and younger ones, under 12-13, have their work on Wednesday and Friday afternoons. From the start they have made, it appears likely that R. R. Rusick, physical director, will have his hands, as well as the gym floor, full during the season.

The boys are making their own rapier for fencing, using round doweling rods, with handguards made of old automobile tires. Their first lessons have been devoted to learning the proper position for fencing, and the elementary head guard movements. In wrestling, they have started with the attack position, and have learned the "half Nelson" hold.

In tumbling, their first task is to learn correct posture. When they have found how to stand straight, they tackle the forward roll, and then go on to the head stand. Each boy is expected to learn both the head stand and the hand stand, and to be able to stand in correct position on his hands for 10 seconds. The marching events have been started with instruction in alignment, position, salutes and squads.

Each boy takes part in all of the different lines of work in his class, and by the time he has mastered the five units in each division, he will have secured a fine piece of physical development in addition to the ability to perform correctly a number of interesting stunts and exercises.

Regular scoring of points will be started the first of September, by which time the classes will be well under way. The Bible study feature will be introduced at that time.

All boys are invited to enroll now for the season's work, so as to get full benefit from the entire course.

PICKING UNDER WAY ON COUNTY WALNUT CROP

By HAROLD E. WAHLBERG Farm Advisor, Orange County

The walnut harvest is under way, about two to three weeks earlier than usual. Picking crews have started in many orchards. The size of nuts in the first picking is smaller than usual but the later picks no doubt will bring larger sizes on the average. The quality is very good. The nuts are well filled as a general rule and the meats are light colored, much in contrast to the amber colored meats of last year caused by the hot spell of last summer.

The total production in Orange county this year will probably be 16,000,000 to 17,000,000 pounds, as compared with 9,500,000 pounds last year. The average yield last year was 1040 pounds per acre. Indications are that the average this year should well approximate 1700 pounds per acre.

Favorable weather conditions so far have brought the grower good quality nuts. It is now his responsibility to preserve that quality by prompt and frequent picking up of the nuts from the ground and separating the nut from the husk as soon as possible. The nut is in best condition as soon as the husk cracks and splits. The sooner the nut can be removed from the dampness of the husk the less susceptible it will be to the development of the mould fungus in the nut and the discoloration of the pellicle. The possibility of staining will also be reduced.

Drying Stops Decay

Drying stops deterioration. Mould will not grow in a dry medium. It is false economy to delay picking for the sake of saving a few dollars in labor. Such delays will invariably lower the quality and appearance of the nut to a greater or less extent, often depreciating the final price of the product several cents a pound. We have noted several instances where the grower has attempted to save one-third to one-half cent per pound in his harvesting costs by delaying his first picking and making infrequent gatherings during the season. When a check was made on returns for the crop at the end of the season, however, the grades had been lowered to the extent of reducing the income from two to six cents per pound.

Must Pick Promptly

Records made by the experiment station sometime ago showed definite lowering of grades for all varieties where nuts were not picked up reasonably promptly. In the Placentia block, 65 per cent of the nuts tested light meats and were graded Diamonds where prompt harvesting was instituted.

HEALTH CAMP FUND CAMPAIGN GETS STARTED

Santa Ana today was ready to enter the race with other larger cities of Orange county in the Children's Health camp fund appeal. A group of 75 volunteer workers met last night at headquarters, 411 North Main street, to make final plans for the solicitation, which will start immediately. Actual work already is under way in Anaheim, Fullerton and other towns.

At this time of the year weather conditions are uncertain. Fewer chances will be taken by the grower who gathers his crop frequently. Many dehydrators have been installed to facilitate the proper drying and curing of the crop. Some 500 to 600 plants have been installed by the industry in California, which have a capacity of handling almost the entire crop if every plant were run full time and made available to all growers.

At no time should the temperature be allowed to go above 110 degrees Fahrenheit during the process of dehydration. Experience has shown that temperatures exceeding 110 degrees break down the oils in the nut and cause them to become rancid in two to four months. The rancidity will not be noticed in the packing processes but become very evident after the nuts have arrived at their market destinations.

Baumgartner pointed out that pledges need not be paid in cash in full at the time of solicitation. They may be paid in installments at intervals throughout the year. In this way, he said, a pledge need not be a burden at any one time.

At Anaheim and Fullerton the appeal got under way on Friday and Saturday. Victor G. Lody is chairman at Anaheim and T. H. Curtis at Fullerton. At Buena Park the workers were to meet at 7:30 p. m. today under the leadership of J. R. Thompson.

Rancher Declares Walnut Crop Is Best Since 1880

The crop of walnuts which is being harvested now in Orange county is one of the best crops produced in the county since 1880, it was stated today by R. B. Cook, 517 French street who owns 18 acres of walnuts near Capistrano.

Cook has grown walnuts in Orange county since 1880 and for many years was president of the Capistrano Walnut Growers' association.

The quality of the nuts as well as the quantity is unusually good this year, the veteran walnut grower said. He has eight pickers working on his grove who pick from 25

Mrs. Tutill is accompanying her daughter, Miss Mary Tutill, to South Bend, Ind., where the latter will enter the St. Mary's college at Notre Dame for the coming year. Mr. Crookshank's destination is French Lick, Ind., although he will stop en route in Chicago for a visit with Mrs. Crookshank, who is making an indefinite stay with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, whose illness called her east.

Mrs. Thomas H. Glenn Made Welcome Here During Brief Stay

Santa Ana friends of Thomas H. Glenn, head of the English department of the Santa Ana Junior college and high school, are making the most of the brief opportunity afforded them this month of meeting Mr. Glenn's bride, the former Miss Louise Mathilde Rosenfeld of Paris, before her return to the eastern coast in mid-September. Arrived recently by automobile from Detroit, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Glenn are at present established in the home of Mrs. E. E. Keech at 319 South Main street, residence of Mr. Glenn before his departure for Europe on a year's leave of absence. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn have been spending the summer, since their wedding in New York City, in Middlebury, Vermont, where Mrs. Glenn resumed her duties as an instructor with the French Summer school at Middlebury college. She is to return, about September 15, to St. Elizabeth's college in Morristown, N. J., to assume a position as head of the French department there for the ensuing year. Mr. Glenn will remain in Santa Ana to dispatch similar duties on the local English department, but will be joined by his wife during the Christmas holidays.

As the leader of a party of travelers, Mr. Glenn toured Europe last summer before returning, in September, to France to begin his year's study at Tours, noted center of learning in the heart of the Chateaux country, south of Paris. After a stay of several months in that district, Mr. Glenn moved to Paris to enter the Alliance Francaise for further specialization. His acquaintanceship with Mrs. Glenn was made in the latter institution, with whose faculty she was associated.

A visit with Mrs. Glenn's parents in Wissembourg followed their marriage in Paris on June 16, the couple sailing soon after for New York and remaining in the east until recently.

Decorative details were particularly effective, Tallman roses, white tapers and combination nut cups and placecards of wedding bell design vied for the admiration of guests. Assembled in compliment to Dr. and Mrs. Lyons were Miss Dorothy Calhoun, Messrs. Joseph Butts, Pat Humphreys, and Dr. John Ferte, all of Los Angeles; and Miss Marjorie Webber of Spokane, Wash., houseguest of Miss Calhoun in Los Angeles in addition to the hostess, Miss Helen Drake.

Three Will Represent B-P. W. Club at State Meet

At least three members of the Santa Ana Business and Professional Women's club will represent the interests of the local organization at the state convention of the California Federation of B. and P. W. clubs when that association convenes in Yosemite valley September 9 and 10. Representatives were officially announced last evening, when the Santa Ana women gathered in the clubhouse on Lido Isle following a dinner held there as part of the social meeting with which the club punctuates, each month, its series of weekly meetings. Mrs. Adelaide Cochran, president, and Miss Martha Whitson, state director, are automatically eligible to attend the state conference, and Mrs. Hazel Northcross was elected official delegate from the Santa Ana club.

Next month's convention is regarded as of more than usual importance, since the federation will consider at this meeting the advisability of merging with the California League of B. and P. W. clubs, which holds a present membership in the national organization with which the California federation, to which the Santa Ana club belongs, is not affiliated. Should the merger be effected, the federation, through its new affiliations, would apply immediately for membership in the national order, Santa Ana officers explain. Early arrivals yesterday enjoyed a swim at the beach before dressing for the dinner. Members were warmly received by clubhouse officials and made to feel at home about a crackling fire, where the guests gathered before and after dinner.

Arrangements for the party were in charge of Miss Vanche Plumb, whose helpers included Miss Genevieve Humiston, Mrs. Ruth Ellis and Mrs. Kate Walters.

Dinner Precedes Card Games for Members Of Club

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Ewbank were hosts to members of their dinner bridge club Saturday evening when they entertained in the blue room at Ketter's. Pink, green and yellow were the pretty pastel tints combined in all decorative details. The long table where the dinner was served was decked with paper streamers and lighted with slender tapers in the three chosen colors. Nut cups, too, conformed to the pink, green and yellow theme. Goldenglow, the flowers used to center the table, were artistically arranged in a large basket.

In the bridge games following, Mrs. Earl Lepper and Wilbur Gill scored high. Consolation awards went to Mrs. William Stanford and Philip La Londe. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Earl Lepper, Louis F. Bittle, Earl Neer, William Stanford, Philip La Londe, Harry Brown, Charles Cramer, Wilbur Gill, Frank King and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Ewbank.

Benefit Party Proves Successful Affair For Y. L. I.

Acclaimed a success both socially and financially was the benefit card party given Saturday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Ashen were hosts in their home, 1502 French street. Proceeds from the affair go to the Capistrano Y. L. I. Patna Mission fund. The hosts' home was made gay with bright-hued zinnias, for the occasion. The bridge games, introduced early in the evening, were won by Mrs. J. P. Murphy and Robert Sandon, who upheld honors for women and men of the party. Bringing the enjoyable evening to a close, Mrs. Ashen served appetizing refreshments. Her daughters, the Misses Rosemary and Bernadine Ashen, assisted at this time. It is expected that similar benefit parties will be given later in the season. Beginning in September, regular meetings of the Y. L. I. will be resumed, and will be held the second and fourth Thursday of each month in the Knights of Columbus hall, it has been announced.

The Laguna Beach cottara where Miss Genevieve Humiston has been spending the summer was the scene of a merry house-party this past week end, when she entertained members of the Santa Ana Junior college Las Meninas club, of which she is an advisor. Miss Dorothy Decker, the other advisor, joined Miss Humiston in giving a card party for the girls on Saturday night. Miss Lorena Allen and Miss Bonnie Kiser were winners of first and second high scores. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Those in the group were the Misses Grace Wurster, Norma Wilson, Joy McPhee, Shirley Day, Lorna Allen, Helen Bower, Bonnie Kiser, Martha Hendricks, Mildred Congdon, the hostesses, Miss Humiston and Miss Decker, and Miss Ruth Collins, of Laguna Beach. The girls went to the beach on Saturday, returning home Sunday, and spending much of the interim at swimming and beach sports.

ANN MEREDITH'S MIXING BOWL
Life-Savers for Pot-Luck Dinners

Emergency soups are a life saver for the pot-luck dinner. I use steak bones and veal shanks to make a rich broth, seasoning the broth with parsley, onion and tomato. When the broth is half cooked split peas are added, quite a lot of them, and the broth is let simmer for several hours. When finished it is strained and the thick broth bottled and put away in the refrigerator. For Creamy Green Pea Soup heat the required amount of rich milk and combine with enough of the split pea broth to suit the taste. For tomato broth reduce the pea broth with hot water, bring to the boiling point and add a generous amount of tomato juice cocktail and let pour over chopped parsley in the soup cups. For an emergency vegetable soup use the broth, reduced with hot water, add finely diced vegetables, freshly cooked or in the convenient small glass your grocer has on his shelves. Left-over spinach, pressed through a sieve, seasoned with butter and parsley, reduced with hot water, then combined with a good amount of the split pea broth, makes a very good soup. A cream sauce base improves it.

TODAY'S RECIPE
Custard Pie
1 quart whole milk
4 medium or 5 small eggs
5 tablespoons sugar
Pinch of salt
Nutmeg to taste, or Extract of any kind
Rich paste for one crust, (see directions).

The first step is to make the crust. Sift 2-5 cup of pastry flour mixed with 1-2 teaspoonful of salt and 1-2 teaspoon baking powder. Measure into the flour 4 level tablespoons chilled shortening. Cut the shortening into the flour until like meal, then carefully add ice water, cutting and blending the pastry until it just holds together. Roll out, fit to pan, building up the edge with fluted finish. Reserve a little of one egg white (beaten) to brush the bottom. This helps prevent the custard from soaking into the crust.

For the filling scald the quart of milk, take from fire and when slightly cooled whip in the eggs, beaten to a froth with the sugar. Flavor the custard, pour into the waiting pastry shell and start baking in a hot oven (500 degrees) for 3 minutes, then 400 for 7 minutes. Heat is as important as filling or pastry; an intense heat is first needed to set the custard so that it does not soak. When the crust is set the heat must be reduced to about 290 degrees to slowly finish the custard. I like mine firm on the edges and creamy in the center. When the pie is cold the texture is just right. The recipe makes one large pie, or two small ones.

There are about 2000 calories in this custard pie, or 250 to each of eight servings. This pie is so rich in proteins it should be used with a dinner in which meat is not too evident. With vegetable soup it would be a fine combination for luncheon. Last week the sweet pickles had to take a back seat in the 1932 Pickle Leaflet, but this week they are having their innings in the SWEET PICKLE Leaflet. You may have the collection free of charge by sending in the usual stamped, self-addressed envelope. Wednesday's recipe will be baked rabbit.

ANN MEREDITH.

Welcome Home Party Given Honoring Local Family

With children of club members taking part in the affair as special guests, members of the Merrimakers club held an enjoyable beach party at Balboa Bay Sunday afternoon and evening, when they gathered to honor Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moomaw and their family. The Moomaws have just returned from Oregon, where they spent a pleasant two months with relatives and college friends. In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Moomaw and sons, Dick and Donn, and Messrs. and Mesdames Everett Boynton and children, Demming and Carol; Harold Smith and children, Gene, Donald and Marjorie; Thomas Smith and daughter, Bonnie; Robin Meairs and daughter, Patty Pearl; Orlo Householder and daughter, Betty; Worth Alexander and sons, Jimmie and Raymond; Eva Burns and daughter, Beverly June. Mrs. Alexander had made plans for the welcome home affair. An afternoon of swimming and popular beach sports came to a close with the serving of a picnic dinner. A merry session around the campfire followed. Mr. and Mrs. Moomaw have a host of friends here, who are welcoming them back from their extended vacation.

Community Players Will Capitalize on Current Political Fever

The Barn on East Fourth and Mabury streets, where Community Players gather once each month from September to June for workshop meetings, will be the scene of a mock mass meeting Thursday night, when the players open their season. If reports issuing from the new Barn committee materialize. The current popularity of matters political has prompted Barn officials to capitalize on the mania, with the result that Thursday's meeting has been planned on the order of a political burlesque, according to letters mailed to Barn patrons today. The opening session will be long on atmosphere according to plans revealed by the committee which will endeavor to transform the Barn into a setting suitable for a political convention. In this setting will be presented a political skit from the Saturday Evening Post, in which the roles will be enacted by Lois Rees and Wilma Silver Smith; three-minute speeches by mock representatives of the more radical parties; a debate of a type said to be unique in better debating circles, and numbers by a brass band of convention type. New Barn committee members include Miss Constance Cruickshank, chairman; Mesdames Robert C. Northcross, Elsie W. Spruance and Marshall Northcross Jr.; Messrs. Arthur Collins, John K. Colwell and R. Carson Smith. Mrs. Robert S. Wade heads a separate music committee. All persons interested in the Players' activities are welcome to attend. The Players' governing board, through Will H. Spurgeon, president, has announced at least one change in plans for the ensuing Barn year, of which the Players should be advised before the Thursday meeting. Each person attending will be asked to contribute a slight admission charge in order that bare running expenses may be sustained, Mr. Spurgeon states.

Informal Parties Are Complimentary to Easterner

Among delightfully informal affairs given recently to honor Mrs. K. L. Goss of Minneapolis, who has been spending the past two months with her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. K. H. Sutherland, was a two-table bridge tea given in the Sutherland home, 2424 Riverside drive. Another event was a bridge supper in the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Bower, 1324 Bush street. Mrs. Goss is to conclude her visit here on Labor Day, when she will leave for Corcoran, California, to visit her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Sutherland, before returning to Minneapolis. The H. B. Sutherlands also have been spending some time here. Zinnias, asters and scabiosa, in pastel shades, were attractively arranged about the rooms of the home. Bridge games were in session soon after guests arrived, and Miss Ruth Armstrong was successful in winning first prize. Mrs. H. G. Huffman was consoled. Guests included Miss Armstrong, Miss Georgia Walton, Mrs. W. H. Wright, Mrs. H. G. Huffman, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. John Backus, Mrs. E. L. Russell, and the honoree and hostess, Mrs. Goss and Mrs. Sutherland. The tea table was spread with a golden damask cloth and lighted with rose-hued candles for the serving of the late afternoon menu. Flowers used in decorating at this time were in tints of yellow and soft rose. Mrs. Russell and Mrs. John Backus assisted the hostess.

Informal Luncheon
On another occasion, Mrs. Goss was honoree at an informal luncheon given in the Sutherland home. Zinnias and asters in vivid shades were used in the home. Those sharing the event with Mrs. Goss and Mrs. Sutherland were Mrs. Merrill Hollingsworth, Mrs. Hiram Currey and Mrs. Emmett Raltt. The afternoon was spent socially.

Bridge Supper
In entertaining for Mrs. Goss, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Bower chose a bridge supper as their medium, inviting guests to their home at 1324 Bush street. Mrs. Bower, too, used zinnias in carrying out her floral decorations, combining giant flowers in gold, yellow and red in gay bouquets. The table arranged for the delicious menu was brightened with yellow Mexican poppies and tall yellow tapers. All service was in silver. The evening was spent playing contract bridge, with E. E. Frisby of this city scoring high and Mrs. Ben Parks of Long Beach, low. Guests included Dr. and Mrs. Ben Parks of Long Beach, Dr. and Mrs. K. H. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Frisby, Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Russell, Mrs. Goss, Dr. and Mrs. Bower and their daughter, Miss Helen Bower.

Edward Halls to Return Here Before Making Home in Pasadena

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hall were expected to return to Santa Ana for a few days this week before moving to Pasadena to make their future home. Santa Ana friends of the couple learned today, following their marriage on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Little Church of the Angels in Pasadena. An intimate gathering of relatives and friends witnessed the wedding of Mrs. Margaret Lyon Britton of this city, daughter of the late Arthur H. Lyon, and Edward Hall of Pasadena, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Sanderson Hall of Omaha, Neb., for whom rites were read by the Rev. W. L. H. Benton of La Crescenta, former pastor of the Church of the Messiah in Santa Ana. The couple departed for the north on a honeymoon by motor, immediately following the ceremony.

Organ selections of appropriate mood preceded the service, at which the bridegroom was attended by William Porter of Los Angeles as best man. The bride was beautifully gowned in green lace, trimmed in dark fur, wearing a hat of the same green shade, and a shoulder corsage of orchids. She was escorted to the altar on the arm of W. H. DeWolfe of this city, who gave her in marriage. Ushers and best men were all classmates of the bridegroom at Harvard University, included Dr. George Sharp of Pasadena and Arthur Smith of Pomona. Among those attending the wedding from Santa Ana were Mesdames Arthur H. Lyon and daughter, Miss Mary Zaiser, and son, Donald Zaiser; Mrs. Alice Harris, aunt of the bride, and daughter, Mrs. Michael Thompson of Los Angeles; Mrs. Fred Wilson; Messrs. and Mesdames W. H. DeWolfe, Franklin West and Z. B. West; Mesdames Theo A. Winkler, M. A. Yarnell, Fred Forky, Wilbur Barr, Richard H. Winkler, F. E. Farnsworth and daughter, Evelyn.

A graduate of Mills college, Mrs. Hall attended the University of California at Berkeley for an additional year before returning south. Mr. Hall took his degree at Harvard university, where he was affiliated with the Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Thirteen brought no jinx to Nathan Levens, who celebrated his thirteenth birthday anniversary yesterday afternoon with a merry party given by his mother, Mrs. W. J. Levens, in their home, 623 North Van Ness avenue. The boys attending the party spent the afternoon playing games and taking part in favorite contests. At the close of the day

NEW BOOKS IN PUBLIC LIBRARY

By VERA RAMSEY

There is much being written and said concerning the President of our country. Probably a greater proportion of it is unfavorable. In order to be entirely fair in our judgment of him, it might be well to study the problems he has attacked from his viewpoint and in the light of his ideals. Walter Friar Dexter, President of Whittier College, is well known to Californians and especially to the inhabitants of Southern California. He is a fellow Quaker and in other ways his character is suited to an interpretation of Hoover's ideals. His new book "Herbert Hoover and American Idealism" attempts to bring this to us.

What beliefs motivate President Hoover in his task of guiding the American nation through the present period of stress? Dr. Dexter believes that Herbert Hoover is the leading American exponent of the philosophy of individualism. Spoken and written statements covering this phase of human interest during the past decade have won for him the intellectual approval of many of the best thinkers of the civilized world.

The author first discusses the background of Hoover's individualism; the influence upon him of his birth in Iowa and his Quaker heritage; his growth into manhood and the shaping of his humanitarian ideals. He then considers President Hoover and American idealism from the standpoints of the philosophy of freedom; the functions of government; economic progress; and the problem of war. Throughout the book, excerpts from Hoover's speeches and writings are used freely to illustrate his beliefs.

The book has a particularly timely appeal both to those already committed to the President's policies and those who wish to know more about and to understand better his less acclaimed opinions. The author stresses Mr. Hoover's stand on all important aspects of the problem of the individual in the midst of our complex social and political order.

Jan Welzl, a Czech by birth, a locksmith by trade, decided to seek his fortune in the Far North. He traveled by wagon across the wilds of Siberia, then on a whaling ship until the Arctic Circle. His book "Thirty Years in the Golden North" tells in simple, lively fashion of his arduous journey and subsequent adventures.

We read of all the exciting things that happened to him and of how he became a successful trader with headquarters in a commodious cave on the rocky coast of New Siberia, an island in the Arctic Ocean where he has lived for thirty years.

In his account of his experiences among Eskimos and gold miners, he tells how he adopted an Eskimo baby to save it from being thrown into the sea. At another time he took a rich American woman on board in his cave through a whole winter. He was "snow-bound" in a blizzard without food for four days. These are just a sample of the perilous and thrilling experiences that came his way in the frozen north. Finally he was voted chief of the island with absolute power, including life and death.

Karel Capek, the famous Czech novelist and playwright, says in his foreword Welzl's story is a genuine revelation. This is no mere description of eternal ice, but of eternal humanity, however harsh its surroundings have made it.

The story, in fact shows man at his grandest in an epic struggle with and final victory over the grim forces of nature.

"A Primer of Money" by Donald B. Woodward and Marc A. Rose is exactly what its title suggests. It explains simply and clearly the birth, growth, development, and present operation of money and monetary systems. It answers in the plainest and most direct manner, the questions which the average citizen is asking these days when the newspapers are full of news of monetary troubles and complications—England leaving the gold standard, shipments of gold, the slump in silver, the banking crises in various countries, "inflation" here and "deflation" there. It is written with the assumption that the reader has read nothing else on the subject, has never studied economics, or that his school days are so far behind him that he has forgotten what he learned.

It begins with the story of the birth of money told as a narrative in large part. The account progresses, step by step, until the latter half discusses "Money Problems in the Modern World" which are made thoroughly comprehensible to anyone who has begun at the start. It explains many theories, but advocates none, and is always careful to make extremely clear what is theory and what is conceded fact.

The book is particularly timely in 1932, but it should be valuable for years to come, since whatever developments may come in the financial world will not likely affect the underlying principles it sets forth.

COTTON WORKERS IN BRITAIN ON STRIKE

MANCHESTER, Eng., Aug. 30.—(UP)—Thousands of cotton workers in Lancashire's vast textile industry went on strike yesterday in what may develop into the greatest industrial disruption since the World war.

Union leaders sent pickets to the mills. It was estimated more than 700 plants were picketed by mid-morning.

The strikers were, for the most part, weavers in the cotton mills and 20,000 spinners were preparing to join the strike on the question of a walkout soon. Many mills were not operating, due to lack of working forces.

UNCOVERING HIDDEN ROME

The demolition of buildings now being carried on between the Capoline Hill and the Fara, will shortly include the pulling down of a small isolated block on the old Via Salaria, of which the Convent of the Mercedari, annexed to the Church of St. Adrian forms a part. This is important for behind the church are the remains of an ancient Roman building, the famous Curia, where the senate held its sessions. It will be unearthed and more of hidden Rome will be brought to the light of day, and the tourist will see where the Roman senate held forth in its day so long ago.

THE TINYMIES

The husband wasn't hard to run. In fact, the Tinties thought it fun. But Duncy, "We are going fast. We'll just slow up a bit."

"If we all were too hard, you see, we'd get as tired as tired can be. Right now this is a dandy ride. There's no sense spoiling it."

"Aw, you're just lazy," Scouty cried. "You're that way, lad, whenever we ride. Keep pumping now and do your share. We'll all rest after while."

And then, he added, "Which I know just where this funny track leads to. I get more curious as we move on, mile after mile."

Just then they reached a little turn and Scouty cried, "Why don't you learn to keep your balance, Duncy? Why, you nearly took a flip!"

"Hang to the bar and hang on tight. Then everything will be all right. If anybody troubles off, we'll all have to stop."

It wasn't very long until the side had lost some of its thrill.

When Duncy started puffing and he said, "I'll have to rest."

"I see a pump ahead, I think. Let's stop by it and get a drink. They'll get right back to us again and do my very best."

The others didn't argue. They were glad to pass some time away just loafing, so they stopped the car and all jumped to the ground.

In about an hour brave Scouty cried, "Come on, let's get back to our ride. I'm anxious to move on, though we don't know where we're bound."

So, on they crawled and once more pumped. Then suddenly the small car jumped right down between two big, high banks, yet stayed upon the track.

The Tinties managed to hold tight, although it gave them quite a fright. Said Duncy, "Gee, that looked as if we were in for a break my back."

BONERS

Persephone went out with the king on the subway.

Boners are actual humorous tid-bits found in examination papers, essays, etc., by teachers.

A man was each day brought to the temple's beautiful gate to ask for arms as he had diseased feet and ankle bones. One day as Peter and John were going into the temple he asked them for arms but they replied silver and gold have I none but such as I have I give thee. He then asked the man to give him his right hand.

Henry the Sixth was a very gentle man, and when he was sane he never swore. Above all he was a perfect Christian. He was very un-suitable for a King of England.

TWO SPEAKERS HIT WETS IN CHURCH TALKS

BUENA PARK, Aug. 30.—The Sunday evening services at the Buena Park Congregational church were carried out under the auspices of the local W. C. T. U., with two speakers, Mrs. Cora Hale, of Fullerton, who is county president of the W. C. T. U., and Mrs. A. H. Foster, of Brawley, who with her husband, Dr. A. H. Foster, formerly resided here.

Mrs. Hale in her talk refuted many claims made by wet advocates, taking as her first example the increased consumption of milk, since the enactment of the 18th amendment. Mrs. Hale maintained that the youth of today has a better chance than under former conditions. The moderate drinker, she stated, is a greater menace both as an example and as a traffic menace than the drunkard, who becomes incapable of traveling about. In closing, Mrs. Hale gave a list of candidates approved by the county Board of Strategy, as follows: Clyde Downing, Republican, for state senator; Joe Crall, for United States senator; Edward Craig, for assemblyman; Judge J. L. Allen and Judge H. G. Ames, for judges of the superior court. She said that LeRoy Lyon and W. J. Carmichael had been recommended by the Fullerton board for supervisor. A plea for membership for the W. C. T. U. was made by Mrs. Hale.

Mrs. Foster, accompanied at the piano by Miss Myrtle Butler, illustrated her talk with a series of posters, the first being "Prize Babies," in which Mrs. Foster pointed out the danger of inheritance for babies. "Following in Dad's Footsteps" was used to point out the parental example and its effects on the child. A very interesting chart was then shown in which Mrs. Foster pointed out and explained the effects of alcohol on the different organs of the body. The last poster was called "Saloons and Wrecks," and brought out the danger of the intoxicated driver. On a table Mrs. Foster had arranged eight beer bottles. The food value contained in the bottles, she stated, was not equal to the amount of food which might be picked up on the end of a knife. The cost of the four would be about two-fifths of a cent, while the cost of each bottle would be 50 cents per bottle or if imported across the border would average about one dollar a bottle, she declared.

HARVESTING OF BEAN CROP IN COUNTY STARTS

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Aug. 30.—The lima bean crop of this part of Orange county is now being cut and stacked, the first step in the harvesting of the crop. Estimates of bean growers and bean warehouse operators are that the crop will be one-fourth below normal this year.

The beans are first cut and laid in small piles and the bright green fields are browning in the sun. The bean threshers will come into the fields within the next 15 days if the sunshine prevails. If cloudy weather continues over Orange county as it has for several days past, the beans will not ripen for about three weeks, delaying the work of the thresher and crew.

After threshing the beans go to the warehouses and the bean hulls or straw goes to the orange orchards, carrying nitrates and humus. At the warehouses the handling of the bean crop makes work for many women. Last year the Smeltzer warehouse, which handles most of the beans of the Huntington Beach farming district, paid out $32,000 for labor. About 50 women found employment there from September to May.

The baby limas are short in acreage this year and the crop is also short. The regular limas are looking better and there is more of them as to acreage. One warehouse is offering 41-2 cents a pound for the beans at this time. There is good reason to expect the price will increase slightly as the state lima bean crop is also reported short in acreage and below normal in yield.

The sugar beet crop, while not all harvested, is well on its way to the sugar factory at Santa Ana. Beets proved a fairly profitable crop for the farmers this year. The sugar company guaranteed four-cent sugar and the price of beets was based on the price of sugar, or at least the fictitious or guaranteed price of four cents a pound. At this rate the farmers averaged $6 a ton for their beets and it is believed the crop averaged 20 tons to the acre, making the fairly accurate estimate of $120 an acre for the beet crop.

Zone Rally Is Staged In Brea

A. Whitcomb. L. A. Whitcomb occupied the remainder of time speaking.

Hawaii having produced some of the best swimmers of all time, the entry of John Hawkshaw, 16, of that island has added much interest as to the outcome of the race. Charles Plummer, local swimming instructor, who knows these waters like a book, is an entrant.

4 MORE SIGN UP FOR SWIM ON LABOR DAY

NEWPORT BEACH, Aug. 30.—Four more entries for the Labor day rough water swim to be held here in the forenoon of that day, were received at the Chamber of Commerce offices yesterday, bringing the total entries up to ten.

The late entries are John Boyle, of Beverly Hills; John Estes, Bill Estes, the latter two both Santa Ana boys, and Miss Barbara Baldinger, of Rosemead.

The $100, to be divided into seven prizes ranging from $40 for first, down, supplemented by additional cups from local business men, is expected to bring out several more local contestants with the next few days. It is hoped that enough interest will be shown in the event that it can be established as a permanent annual affair.

SCHOOL TAXES DISCUSSED BY CLAY ADKINSON IN THIS CITY

ANAHEIM, Aug. 30.—With the voters being asked to ballot for the proposed initiative that concerns changes in the method of levying, collecting and distributing school taxes at the November elections, Clay Adkinson, superintendent of the Orange County schools, spoke before the members of the Rotary club yesterday noon when they met at the Elks' clubhouse.

Introducing arguments both for and against the initiative measure, the speaker declared that voters should inform themselves on the measure so as to be able to vote intelligently. He also explained how the taxes are levied at present and where the money comes from.

The speaker was introduced by M. A. Gauer, superintendent of schools in the local elementary district. Guests introduced yesterday were presented by Conrad Jorgensen and were Tokusaburo Matsuda, director of physical education at Kensei university in Japan and Tadayoshi Srai of Kobe, Japan.

WALNUT HOUSE IS OPENED ON MONDAY

ANAHEIM, Aug. 30.—The Walnut association opened yesterday for receiving walnuts from the growers, according to Walter Ross, manager. The opening of the house for packing may be delayed a few days, he also announced, owing to the slowness with which the nuts are coming in.

A shift embracing approximately 60 employees will be used at the association this season.

M. & M. ASS'N TO MEET WEDNESDAY

ANAHEIM, Aug. 30.—The Merchants and Manufacturers will meet tomorrow noon at the Pickwick hotel, Secretary of Chamber of Commerce, George L. Reid, announced today. Mayor Fred Kiesel will be a guest of the association.

Dr. H. A. Johnston, general chairman of the Diamond Jubilee will address the members on the coming event in September. The meeting will be presided over by Harold Klersey.

ERROR CORRECTED

10 NEW FAMILIES MOVE TO ANAHEIM

Senator Nelson T. Edwards today communicated with C. E. Winters, commander of Calumet Camp, United Spanish War Veterans, expressing his regret that the veteran's organization had been inadvertently identified in The Square Deal Forum with an endorsement of Edwards by the Spanish-American Society of Orange County.

The item published by the Square Deal Forum stated that the endorsement of Senator Edwards was voted by the Spanish-American Society, which was a fact, but the headline named the "Spanish War Veterans" as having voted the endorsement, which was an error.

In his communication to Commander Winters, Senator Edwards pointed out that the fact that the endorsement was correctly reported in the item itself made it obvious that the headline was merely a typographical error.

The Spanish-American Society of Orange County, which endorsed Senator Edwards for re-election because of its "confidence in his ability, integrity and independent character," was recently organized.

According to its president, N. D. Meyer, Santa Ana attorney, the society already has about 100 active members, all heads of families, and will influence about 1500 votes at the present time, through an article of its constitution which calls for unity of action in matters officially decided by the organization.

The present membership, Meyer explained, while not as yet actually including a large Spanish-American population at San Juan Capistrano, has an understanding with that group to cooperate in the endorsement of Senator Edwards. The Capistrano group is already enrolled in the society, Meyer said.—Adv.

ALLEGED CHECKS GERMAN HAVE ARTIST FACES SOLUTION FOR JUDGE AUG. 31

FULLERTON, Aug. 30.—Bradley M. Fischer, held in the Fullerton jail on a charge of writing fictitious checks, will have a preliminary hearing at 9:30 a. m. Wednesday before Judge Halsey I. Spence.

Fischer was arrested last Saturday by Police Officer John Trezise at Buena Park after he is asserted to have passed a number of fictitious checks to Fullerton merchants.

At first he was booked on suspicion of writing fictitious checks under the name of Howard S. Roberts, a salesman of Hollywood. Investigation showed his name to be Fischer and that he has also two other aliases, George M. Mansfield and George C. Williams, police said.

Upholding the 18th amendment to the California Wright act and favoring the reduction of costs of government, Downing left the verdict in the hands of the voters. Following his speech he was enthusiastically greeted by the audience.

"I believe that the gasoline and fuel tax should be given an equitable distribution in the county," Downing stated, "and if I am sent to the senate I promise to do all in my power to secure this for the people who are entitled to it."

Repeating the claim that he is being backed by a politically-minded individual, Downing declared that he stood for the mass of the people rather than for any select group.

Touching on the prohibition question, the candidate stated that the law must be enforced in every instance, with every person, or government will fail. Aside from that prohibition is economically sound.

In answer to attacks made upon him by his opponent, N. T. Edwards, Downing smilingly said: "I have been called a schoolboy with a schoolboy's mentality and one who every thought is handed me from someone else. If this is so I must have a memory above the average schoolboy's."

Following with a brief speech, E. E. Long, newspaperman and resident of Anaheim for nine years, gave a campaign talk in which he stressed again that he stands for the majority of the people rather than for the few.

Charging the newspapers in the county with being a part of the "county machine," Long pointed out that for that reason his candidacy is not being supported by the local papers, for he is opposed to the machine that has wasted the people's money, that is allied with big interests and that does not listen to the common people who are being "put through the mill."

In conclusion he said, "I stand for economy in government, as I have been preaching for the past six years, and for reduction in the cost of government."

PARIS, (INS)—Competition between the Germans and French for American tourist business has become so keen that French hotel-keepers throughout the nation have drastically reduced prices.

Reductions range from 50 to 20 per cent in 11,000 hotels listed in the 1932 guide just issued by the national tourism department.

Americans who have visited France in the past few years have had numerous occasions to complain about hotel and restaurant prices.

It used to be that France boasted, "France is the country where real luxury is the least expensive."

The boast no longer holds good. Even wines which before the war could be had for twenty sous, 4 cents American money now sell for around 4 francs, or 16 cents.

The Germans started two years ago to make a decisive bid for American tourist patronage and the effect was felt in France last year, there being a distinct falling off in hotel and restaurant business.

The German enterprise is carried even to their two fast express liners. The French liners and the German liners try to outdo each other in cuisine and service. Travelers speak highly of the added interest the German ships take in providing entertainment for passengers.

The capture of a "name" passenger, such as Norman Talmadge, the film star who arrived in Paris recently, is widely expected.

Residents of Paris are looking forward hopefully to the time when food prices come down.

NEW CAVES IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA

Beautiful as the tourist has found modern Czechoslovakia to be, villages of majestic mountains, quiet valleys of rolling hills and its grand city of Prague, the Czechoslovaks have been burrowing underground and found new beauties. The whole province from the Carpathians to the Hungarian frontier has been investigated and the latest discovery is the Domic Cave, seven miles from Plesivce where stalactite chambers of beauty elsewhere unknown have been found. They were known to pre-historic man, however, for pottery has been found in them as well as rude drawings on the walls. They now belong to the National Tourist Club.

A ROMANTIC WALK IN COPENHAGEN

One of the most beautiful, if not the most beautiful thing to do during a visit to Copenhagen in Denmark is to take a moonlight walk along the Langelinie Promenade. On a sunny morning it is almost as fine. It runs in a curve from South to North with the venerable trees of the Citadel on one side, and the shimmering waters of the harbor on the other, starting by the gorgeous Gefion Fountain. Not the least of its attractions, is the fine supper to be had at the Royal Yacht Club upon it, and one of its more romantic beauties is the little bronze statue reclining on one of the rocks in the water, "Den lille Havfrue" or "the Little Mermaid," whom Hans Christian Andersen created.

OLD ANTIBES IN FRANCE

Hardly an exhibition of painting in England or America at any time, but what you will see is the work of some artist who shows you something of lovely old Antibes in France. It is often said to combine in one place all the beauty, quaintness and pleasure of the Riviera. From the Prince of Wales to the new rich old speculator from America, they all come to Antibes. It was a great favorite of Anatole France, especially the old district which was not changed in centuries.

BERLIN, August.—(INS) A compulsory labor service for German youths as an effective means against unemployment is advocated by Fascists and other nationalist parties. The plan is just one of the many curbs proposed to the Government against unemployment, but the fact that it is decidedly backed up by the Hitler party, strongest in Germany, and the Steelhelm veterans' league, gives it a positive chance to come into effect.

Colonel Constantin Hietl, right hand man of Adolf Hitler, outlined the plan at a recent meeting of the Reich Working Committee for Compulsory Labor Service, which is carrying on a countrywide propaganda.

"We must have the courage to fight unemployment by means which no nation of the world has ever dared adopt," the colonel explained. "Unemployment is no unavoidable fate, but merely due to mistakes of the present economic system. Only by a sweeping reform and by introducing the socialist principle of placing common interests before individual ambitions can the jobless problem be solved satisfactorily."

"Every German must be a worker and fighter for his people. While young, it is his duty to serve the state by work. A labor army drafted with these principles in view would increase the power of the state in the business world, and moreover represent a marvelous medium of educating the younger generation in a moral sense."

"The voluntary labor service already working with good success in many parts of the country," Colonel Hietl continued, "can only be the first incomplete step towards a perfect solution of the unemployment problem, because it failed to embrace the masses. The compulsory service must be organized by the government if it is to achieve its aims."

Land colonization, especially in the Eastern provinces, construction of dams and dikes against floods, building of houses for workers would be among the main occupations of the drafted service laborers. The expense would be very low, according to the Colonel. Volunteer laborers have in the meantime been put to work in East Prussia to help the army digging trenches and constructing field fortifications against the feared Polish invasion.

According to details given by Colonel Hietl about the compulsory labor organization, every German between 19 and 22 would be drafted for two years' work. Their pay would be 7 to 12 cents a day and free board. The service men are to be uniformed and led by ex-army officers. The organization is to work on a strictly military basis.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—(UP)—Bonds developed strength as the session progressed following another run of profit taking in the early trading and steady gains were scored in several departments.

Rails were accumulated again, featured by heavy trading in Nickel Plate 6 1/2 which shot up to 63 1/2, up 4 1/2. Frisco bonds were strong on assurance that the company's Sept. 1 obligations will be met.

Some irregularity still was in evidence in public utility and industrial corporation bonds, but the majority moved up above the previous closing levels as investment demand began to reassert itself. U. S. Government issues were firm, Liberty 3 1/2s selling at a new high.

Little change was in evidence in the foreign list where German issues were supported.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 30.—(UP)—Trade continued sluggish on the day with few price changes. Local Kentucky Wonders were slow at 1 1/2-2 1/2 lb. with poorer L. Limes were 1 1/2c.

Local corn was dull at 15-25c a lug for good stock.

Local cucumbers steady, 20-25c a lug.

Dry pack lettuce from Guadalupe and Santa Maria was 50-75c a crate, with San Luis Obispo lettuce at the same figure and a few best 80c. Local Golden Hybrid casahs held steady at $10.00-10.50 a ton delivered Los Angeles.

Local Spanish onions were plentiful and dull at 40-50c per cwt. White Globes at 15-20c a bag, with some 20-25c for 50-lb. bags.

Potatoes held steady, brokers reported at $1.10-1.15 per cwt. best at $1.25, and fair quality $1.00, while a few Dales of No. 1 Idaho Russets were reported at $1.25.

Bakersfield and Merced sweet potatoes were plentiful and dull at 40-45c a lug, with local Nancy Halls at 40-70c. The tomato market was badly over-supplied. Best Stone tomatoes moved with difficulty and did not clean up and there is almost no demand for the smaller sizes or for Earlians, which under present market conditions should be left in the field. The 5 1/2 size slug. Stone jobs at 15-20c a lug, with some 20-25c for 50-lb. bags.

The watermelon market was in a demoralized condition. Melons averaging 20-24 lbs. in weight sold at $3.00-4.00 a ton delivered. A few geles, with a few high as $7.00, and some low as $3.50.

NEW YORK CURE

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—(UP)—Scattered buying orders came in for the curb market after an early display of the market today, and prices throughout the list assumed an irregular tone in quiet trading.

New highs for the year were achieved in a few miscellaneous stocks such as Newmont Mining, Shenandoah, Thermoid Company and United Fruit on 50-lb. trading to 2 1/2 points, and smaller recoveries from early lows took place in other special issues.

Most power and light leaders held below previous closing levels.

HOW'S BUSINESS?

If you had this service station your answer to "How's business?" would be "Good." Over 10,000 gallons of gas and nearly a hundred grease jobs a month mean certain profit and no maybe about it. A few hundred dollars buys stock and necessary equipment. O. K.

THE PEOPLE ARE UNITED

Tuesday is a quiet day, the day when the people actually work and vote, and the agitation is over. It is a day of relief, and if all have been true and done their best, they can be content with the results.

After all, let us bear in mind, as American citizens, that each has the right of self-expression; each has the right to his own opinion; that the records of officials, as they bear upon their interest, are the property, or should be the property of all. It is not, as a rule, by any means, that there are ulterior or base motives in the record of the actions of other men with whom you disagree.

There will be no scalawags or bad men nominated for office for any position in Orange county. We said this at the beginning of the campaign, and we say it now, as the hours have drawn to a close, and we do not know who will be nominated. There may be men nominated, with whose policies The Register does not agree, but we have not impugned their honesty, and we would urge the people to realize that men of character and men of probity may be on the other side, and may disagree with them.

Tolerance is a wonderful thing in life. We should respect and admire personality, even though the individual may have views different from our own. We are living in a great country, under a wonderful Constitution, with a great background of history, of achievement, and of intellectual and cultural attainment. It is a wonderful thing, when people can go through severe and heated contests, even as great as that of 1896, when some of the silver states actually threatened to secede, and yet when the battle was over, and the last word had been said; when the votes had been counted, William Jennings Bryan went back to his home in Nebraska, and William McKinley was inaugurated with a united nation.

We overestimate the importance, oftentimes, of little battles, in which we engage, in the onward march toward a higher civilization. But let us be happy and content in the thought that in the great values of our institutions, of our traditions, of all of our heritage, and of our desire for a finer and better city and county and state and nation, we are all one.

Somebody always must lose in a contest. It will be keenly disappointing to some, but if we have been true and manly, we can rise to view tomorrow's beautiful sunshine, with a joy in a consciousness that we have done our duty as we have seen it. This is possible to all, and in that, after all, is the highest satisfaction and comfort.

GERMAN SITUATION SERIOUS

Germany is very apparently up against a dictatorship. Constitutional government must be suspended. This is due, of course, to the failure of the parties in the Reichstag to get together in sufficient numbers to show a majority, the largest single body being the Hitlerites, with whom a coalition cannot be made that is satisfactory to their leaders. This means that a cabinet cannot be formed, and chaos or a dictatorship is bound to ensue.

One is led to wonder at the German mind. We have always thought that the Teuton was rather given to exactness, to study, to scientific planning, and to independent thinking. And yet it seems that he loans himself to mass action, to the discipline of such a man as Hitler, in a way that we could not conceive it applying to an American group.

But homogeneity of nationality always is a prime factor in united action, leading toward the will of one individual. America does not enjoy, or from another angle, is not cursed, by such a condition. The heterogeneous elements in her population make for independence, clarification, discussion, and possibly, at times, discord.

And yet the discord of this nature is not as serious in its effect, possibly, upon the real government of the country, as the discord that appears in the other conditions, when it finally does come. The unified interests of the smaller geographical areas of European countries make also for a degree of unity, which the diverse fied interests of America, stretching across 2400 miles from east to west, with her manufacturing, her agriculture, her mining, so divided geographically, tends to divide her people, but not fundamentally.

Dictatorship for Germany, however, is not the natural thing which we might expect. It will not be tolerated very long. The strong man, like Mussolini, has not appeared. Von Hindenberg's age is against him.

AIR RECORD SHATTERED

The familiar saying "the world do move" was again given the stamp of approval yesterday when James G. Hazlip of Ferguson, Mo., set a new transcontinental speed record for airplanes on a flight from Los Angeles to New York.

This record-breaker was certainly moving also, for he spanned the continent in ten hours and nineteen minutes. He won the Bendix trophy race from Los Angeles to the National Air Races at Cleveland, and then continued to New York to set his new mark.

The average speed of Hazlip for this 2600 mile trip across the United States was approximately 250 miles per hour. Certainly it is true that ere long it will be but a step from New York to Los Angeles, and one might well hope that amity in international relations will progress as fast as the advancing strides of the aeronautical and scientific world.

Incidentally there was the coupling of another scientific discovery of high value with this incident. The picture of Hazlip and Roscoe Turner, who also broke Major Doolittle's transcontinental record, was telegraphed back, and published in the paper a few hours after they landed in New York. Bodily crossing the continent in 10 hours and 19 minutes, and then sending their picture back to the point of departure as they looked when they arrived, so that we can see it printed on the page before us, indicates that we are living in a marvelous age. Wonders will never cease.

ROOSEVELT'S OUSTER POWER UPHELD

It seems that the Supreme court of New York has given an opinion that it has no right to deny the Governor of the state the power to oust the mayor of New York City, if he finds the facts justify it. But they do insist on some other points, like the right of the accused to cross-examine the witnesses face-to-face. That may raise a question as to whether the whole thing has been done with that legal formality up to the present hour, which would entitle the Governor to exercise his rights.

This may postpone the day of decision, but it will not postpone it to such an extent that it will not be made long enough before election, for the people to find the attitude which Mr. Roosevelt is to take upon this.

THE FARMERS STRIKE

Well, we will say this for the farmers—when they strike, they strike! And they show a determination equal to any group.

It hardly seems possible that conditions are as they are in Iowa. Messages of reciprocated admiration between labor unions and farmers is another thing that is unusual. It is hoped that the advance in commodity prices generally will tend shortly to raise the prices in these localities, all the way along the line.

From this distance one cannot approve of the form their activities are taking. But we may be too close to it, in point of time, to understand it. Certainly when people are driven to extreme distress, considerable patience needs to be exercised in considering them.

TEXAS ELECTS

A woman has been nominated for Governor in Texas, apparently. And it is the same woman.

Must we go over all that again? Certainly the action of the people is inexplicable.

Incidentally, Texas' vote was for the "wet" plank at the convention, but it nominated a former superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League as one of its Congressmen-at-large, which amounts to an election in Texas.

Now a doctor in Vienna has sewed up a heart that was pierced by three shots. The boy will recover. Science is advancing in a wonderful way.

Jobs for Jobless is Urgent Need

Pasadena Star-News

Unemployment, from all indications, will continue to be an acute problem for several months longer, at least. In truth, there is no way of determining when the volume of employment will swing back to normal. Meanwhile, the unemployed face the most distressing situation. The longer the period of economic stress hangs on, the more distressing does the situation become for many. At first, with loss of job or income and with possibly part-time work, many families eked out existence. Then came greater acuteness, when the family credit had to be drawn upon freely. By and by, sources of credit became exhausted. No income, no credit, no work, no immediate prospects of work—this is the sorry plight of vast numbers of breadwinners. Relief must be extended these unemployed—not charitable relief, with many, but aid to get a job. One of the finest acts of helpfulness possible in this period is to give work or get work for some of the unemployed.

The spirit of the jobless, generally speaking, is superb. They want work; they grab jobs avidly. They are in desperate need. And yet the greater number of them are cheerful and optimistic as they take their distresses in good sportsmanly manner. Every one should help, in some manner and measure, in obtaining work for the worthy jobless.

What This Country Needs Is Bigger and Better "Ghosts"!

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

EVERY ROSE HAS ITS THORN

In the coming political season
The arguments, so I've been told,
Will be based on plain truth and pure reason,
And on facts of the species called cold.
Harangues will be out of the fashion;
There will be no appealing to hate,
No efforts to stir public passion
But only forensic debate.

No attempts to rouse public clamor
From the stumps and the rostrums will rise.
No large, metaphorical hammer
Will be swung to nail base barefaced lies.
No tightly clenched fists will be shaken,
A spell on the public to bind;
Every speech will be made to awaken
The calm and intelligent mind.

There will be no parades nor processions
The gathering crowds to inspire.
Which are manned by political Hessians Whose torches and cheers are for hire.
No "canards" will the orators juggle
The votes of the masses to gain;
Both parties will run off the struggle
On a high intellectual plane.

This plan to appeal to the nation
Through its mind, not its ears and its eyes,
By a system of calm education
Is proof that the leaders are wise.
For casting our votes we'll be fitter
When the campaign is over and done
But we'll feel all the time pretty bitter
Because we have missed all the fun!

BLIGHTED HOPE

The fact that stamps cost three cents instead of two doesn't seem to deter any of our creditors from sending along the monthly duns.

But if public acceptance is responsible for dirty movies, that makes the voter responsible for a candidate's lying.

The upper class seems to be the one that can postpone payment of a grocery bill without moving.

But sometimes we wonder if it would cost the taxpayer any less if Congressmen hired strangers instead of relatives.

ALAS! FOR THE OLD DAYS WHEN YOU HELD A LADY'S HAND BY PRETENDING NOT TO KNOW SHE KNEW YOU WERE DOING IT.

This isn't the only kind of panic. Drowning people also pull down the man who tries to rescue them.

Death and taxes have long been connected, but this is the first time they have had the same effect.

If a man turns a bad dog loose, the victim can collect damages. When officials parole a criminal, the victim gets arrested as a material witness.

"Officials of Tennessee town burn all bathing suits." Sounds fishy. As a rule the bathing suits burn up the officials.

CORRECT THIS SENTENCE: "I SAVED HIS LIFE TEN YEARS AGO," SAID THE GUARD, "AND HE STILL DOES ME FAVORS TO SHOW HIS GRATITUDE."

Little Benny's Note Book

by Lee Pape

Me and pop was taking a walk before supper and all of a sudden pop noticed I had red paint all over one hand and a red spot on my nose, saying, Well for Feet sake where did you get hold of that?

We passed a fireplug that said Fresh Paint on it. I said, and pop said, You mean I passed it and you lingered lovingly. If it was plainly marked Fresh Paint will you kindly tell me why you rubbed your hand on it and evidently your nose as well? he said. Well G wizz, Pop, that was just the reason, I said, and pop said, I'm straining my dull wits to follow you but I'm afraid you'll have to give me just another pointer or 2 before I can catch up, and I said, Well gosh, pop, how did I know the sign was rite without trying.

I get your line of reasoning, but there's a flaw in it, pop said. In other words, why should you try, are you a member of the fire department? he said.

No sir, I said, and pop said, Well then it wasn't any of your bizness, was it? I said, Sure it was, the sign was meant for people like me wawking passed, wasn't it?

Listen here, my boy, if there had been no sign there at all you would have been satisfied to let the thing alone, am I rite? pop said.

Yes sir, I said, and he said, Good, well then if there was a sign on it warning you of fresh paint wasn't that all the more reason for you to leave it alone?

No sir, G, I said, and pop said, Just why not, if you don't mind?

And I said, Because gosh, pop, for all I knew the sign might be of been wrong, mightn't it?

No doubt, pop said. We're going to turn around and go home now, and if you don't get every speck of paint off you I'll do the laying on of hands and you can ask the questions, he said.

Me getting it off all rite, taking about 20 times longer than it did to get it on.

Miss Evelyn Nunn was home from conducting painting classes in the Santa Anita canyon above Sierra Madre. Pomona and Occidental college students comprised her pupils, and there were two Santa Anita girls in the group, the Misses Jean Goodwin and Frances Egge.

A mysterious explosion heard and felt at San Juan Capistrano, was finally decided to be from a meteor as reports came in from various districts, regarding the bright light and noise. Many people in Orange and Fullerton as well as in Redlands had seen the light and heard the explosion.

A military and naval administrative board with Dr. T. M. Putnam as chairman, was organized at University of California to have jurisdiction over various military schools for enlisted men, over proposed schools for naval training, and over the new Students' Army Training Corps unit to be established at the university in Berkeley.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By GLENN FRANK

ONE BUSINESS MAN SPEAKS

Earlier this year I published a book called "Thriller and Dawn" in which I sought to pull together and interpret the sort of thinking I have been trying to do in these articles on the status and prospects of American civilization, in particular, and Western civilization, in general.

I have been reading, this vacation morning, a sheaf of letters from business leaders who have been led to write me their reactions to the book, and I am moved to pass on to the readers of these articles the reaction of one of the great leaders of big business as an indication of the kind of thinking that is going on in the minds of many business men as they attempt to analyze the lessons the depression has presented.

"I hope," he said, "that the fine and lofty spirit in which you write will be effective in stimulating business leadership to which you make your primary appeal as having the power to bring about a wider distribution of wealth so essential as a social basis for a prosperous and happy people."

"Personally I must confess that, as a result of some years experience with business men both in individual relationships and in organized groups such as trade associations, I am somewhat skeptical that your message to business men will bear the fruit it deserves. I have found it difficult to get any group of business men to act on policies which may increase their cost of doing business or lower their profits, even though, in the long run, these profits may be greater because of increased efficiency or a more contented working force."

"To be sure, here and there, one always finds progressive pioneering employers who strike out in the vanguard on economic and social matters. They experiment with shorter hours of work, employment reserves, employee participation in management, and those other matters which go into making a business establishment a social as well as a business institution. But these men are in a decided minority, and many times even they find themselves limited in what they would like to do by the lower standards established by their competitors.

"Certainly the entire history of social legislation in this country, as well as in England, with the stiff resistance put up by the employing group to every measure proposed, would seem to show that there is little to be hoped for, if we are to rely on the voluntary action of business men."

"It is my feeling that we shall have to travel... the road of political leadership. We must, through government, establish minimum standards to which all business establishments, in their respective fields, will have to adhere. In other words, I have come to the conclusion that we must have compulsion."

"As I see it, the next two decades should be the period of establishing social insurance in this country so that in some industrial hazards at least we may assure minimum standards to the great mass of wage earners. After that we shall probably have to extend the concept of public utilities to an increasingly larger area of business."

"Of course I realize the dangers inherent in a larger sphere of governmental action to the freedom of business enterprise. Nevertheless I think the social costs of this freedom are too great."

I am not fully convinced that the answer to our economic difficulties must be a political answer, but I am sure this is the sort of business man who will help us find another answer if it is to be found. Copyright, 1932, McClure Newspaper Syn.

Our Children

By Angelo Patri

If you know that certain processes will bring on trouble with the children, why not avoid those processes? If you know that praising Tillie in Sammie's presence is bound to send him into a ramping rage, why mention Tillie? If you know that telling Rose Marie that her nose is her worst feature will start her on a rambling pace, why press the point? Let a sleeping dog lie every time. Tip-toe around him.

Take the matter of arguing. Theodore is ready-set for an argument the moment he gets out of bed. If you respond to his attitude he will pounce upon the first word, twist it into something unique, rave for five minutes, or as long as his powers hold out while you stand in helpless amazement. Don't cultivate trouble with the arguing child.

The moment he begins leave him the field. Say nothing. Keep on saying it long after he has used up his ammunition. Nothing so impressive as silence deep and prolonged.

When you know that correcting a child before certain members of the family is sure to start a fuss, why not defer the word to a more fitting season. You tell Robert that you're surprised that he got such a poor mark in history this month, and immediately Aunt Eliza lays down her spoon to say tartly, "You're surprised? Well, I'm not. I'd have been surprised if he had anything else. How could he get a good mark in his lessons running around the way he does from morning to night?"

Now the fat is in the fire. Robert speaks up for himself and Aunt Eliza has plenty to say. She has been storing it up for just such an occasion. Why did you offer it? It hasn't done any good to anybody and it has worked harm for the boy. Think before you speak and select the right time for your word of counsel. The child will appreciate that far more than you imagine. He doesn't want trouble any more than you do.

Should Sallie Ann come home with a long tale about the teacher later on, wait and in silence. Wait. "She always saves the hardest ones for me and when I can't answer them she lets somebody go ahead of me. She said right before everybody that I didn't know anything and that you ought to make me do my work instead of petting me all the time."

"She did? She said that? And she put you in the last seat? I'll see about this. I'll show that young woman who she is dealing with. I'll go to school this afternoon and I'll go to school. The very idea."

Don't be betrayed into that. Go softly. Listen. Wait. When you have cleared up all the angry ideas that this tale of injustice aroused you will begin to think that perhaps, maybe, that child might not have been building churches when her teacher put her in the back seat. You will go to school and listen some more. Then with a quiet mind, a clear mind, you will find the situation as it is and your chance of helping the child to solve it will be greatly increased.

The less trouble you create the better. When you see it rising take steps to settle it. Be calm. Be wise as the serpent. Avoid trouble for children whenever you can.

TODAY IS THE WORLD WAR ANNIVERSARY

SWEEPING GAINS CONTINUE

On Aug. 30, 1918, allied troops continued their sweeping advance on a front of near 60 miles in northern France.

The French took Mt. St. Simeon and crossed the Canal du Nord at several places.

British forces continued their wide gains except at Bellecourt where the Germans made a determined stand and halted the British effort to turn the flank of the retreating forces in that vicinity.

Combes and Clerly fell during the day, however, and in some sections British infantry advanced so rapidly that their artillery was left far behind.

American and French troops took Chavigny and Cuffles north of Soissons and Americans stormed Juvigny.
